PART 2

This additional compendium of DVDs', Articles, Illustrations and Comments appends to PART 1
In some cases these amplify the contents of many of the previous articles etc.

As these items of interest are both real and provable,
they are - NOT Conspiracy THEORIES - or vain or paranoid IMAGININGS

40 years of personal observation, trying to discern the underlying "spirit" and purpose, monitoring their growth, and the impacts they are having on our world has proven to have become real in our world.
They definitely exist, (often in plain sight) and have permeated and insinuated hidden agendas into many of our institutions and our way of life. Their plans have been "Crafted" to Trance-Form our World Views from the Inside Out, the Outside In, as well as from above and below. Their many Hierarchies are now sewn into the very fabric of our Institutions and Cultures. They are unseen entities that share this reality with us. They hide in the shadows and present themselves as wise ones,
" illuminated Beings....Angels of light"...

Their aim is to imprison us in their "dark night of the soul".

I include these extras for those who have not as yet felt their impacts , and for those "in Denial" or in "Cognitive Dissonance" about the Truth.
"you will know The Truth and the Truth will set you free".

THE END OF DAYS

PART 2 now looks at :

NEW WORLD ORDER END GAME TIMELINES OF THE PLANS AND AGENDAS OF THESE DARK ENTITIES ; whose schemes of enticement are now being set to trap unwary souls .

(Video 503... And pages 126 to 132 show one example of this planned deception)

" For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. "Ephesians 6:12

Key Global Infrastructures are being created to support their Aspirations for Dominion over every soul on Planet Earth.

Their Tarot cards encode many of their plans, and Tarot card 21 = DOMINION.

And this is Century 21, so Global Agenda 21 is their planning masterpiece to take Dominion over the WORLD in the early stages of the 21st Century.

- A NEW WORLD ORDER.

These largely unseen forces have made huge investments in achieving our Induction and Enslavement and are Obsessed with Enforcing Compliance Entry into Lucifer's "Brave New World" will be by a "Luciferic Initiation",

BUT.. we can opt out!

" And, THIS IS what THE CHOICE is all about"

There is still a way out !

We still have a " CHOICE" outside of these machinations.

These following videos and articles expose the legion armies that the "King of Unkindness" has been building to make war with the Saints, and the infrastructure to imprison the Proud and Rebellious Souls who refuse to acknowledge The Truth and their Creator.

#top21 Goals of the Illuminati and The Committee of 300 by Dr. John Coleman (ca. 1993)

From: Conspirators' Hierarchy: The Story of The Committee of 300\(http://www.bibliotecapleyades.net/sociopolitica/esp_sociopol_committee300_00.htm\)

1. To establish a One World Government/New World Order with a unified church and monetary system under their direction. The One World Government began to set up its church in the 1920:s and 30:s, for they realized the need for a religious belief inherent in mankind must have an outlet and, therefore, set up a "church" body to channel that belief in the direction they desired.

2. To bring about the utter destruction of all national identity and national pride, which was a primary consideration if the concept of a One World Government was to work.

3. To engineer and bring about the destruction of religion, and more especially, the Christian Religion, with the one exception, their own creation, as mentioned above.

4. To establish the ability to control of each and every person through means of mind control and what Zbigniew Brzezinski called technotronics, which would create human-like robots and a system of terror which would make Felix Dzerzhinski's Red Terror look like children at play.

5. To bring about the end to all industrialization and to end the production of nuclear generated electric power in what they call "the post-industrial zero-growth society". Excepted are the computer- and service industries. US industries that remain will be exported to countries such as Mexico where abundant slave labour is available. As we saw in 1993, this has become a fact through the passage of the North American Free Trade Agreement, known as NAFTA. Unemployables in the US, in the wake of industrial destruction, will either become opium-heroin and/or cocaine addicts, or become statistics in the elimination of the "excess population" process we know of today as Global 2000.

6. To encourage, and eventually legalize the use of drugs and make pornography an "art-form", which will be widely accepted and, eventually, become quite commonplace.

7. To bring about depopulation of large cities according to the trial run carried out by the Pol Pot regime in Cambodia. It is interesting to note that Pol Pot's genocidal plans were drawn up in the US by one of the Club of Rome's research foundations, and overseen by Thomas Enders, a high-ranking State Department official.

It is also interesting that the committee is currently seeking to reinstate the Pol Pot butchers in Cambodia.

8. To suppress all scientific development except for those deemed beneficial by the Illuminati. Especially targeted is nuclear energy for peaceful purposes. Particularly hated are the fusion experiments currently being scorned and ridiculed by the Illuminati and its jackals of the press. Development of the fusion torch would blow the Illuminati's conception of "limited natural resources" right out of the window. A fusion torch, properly used, could create unlimited and as yet untapped natural resources, even from the most ordinary substances. Fusion torch uses are legion, would benefit mankind in a manner which, as yet, is not even remotely comprehended by the public.

9. To cause, by means of A) limited wars in the advanced countries, B) by means of starvation and diseases in the Third World countries, the death of three billion people by the year 2050, people they call "useless eaters". The Committee of 300 (Illuminati) commissioned Cyrus Vance to write a paper on this subject of how to bring about such genocide. The paper was produced under the title "Global 2000 Report" and was accepted and approved for action by former President James Earl Carter, and Edwin Muskie, then Secretary of States, for and on behalf of the US Government. Under the terms of the Global 2000 Report, the population of the US is to be reduced by 100 million by the year of 2050.

10. To weaken the moral fibre of the nation and to demoralize workers in the labour class by creating mass unemployment. As jobs dwindle due to the post industrial zero growth policies introduced by the Club of Rome, the report envisages demoralized and discouraged workers resorting to alcohol and drugs. The youth of the land will be encouraged by means of rock music and drugs to rebel against the status quo, thus undermining and eventually destroying the family unit. In this regard, the Committee commissioned Tavistock Institute to prepare a blueprint as to how this could be achieved. Tavistock directed Stanford Research to undertake the work under the direction of Professor Willis Harmon. This work later became known as the "Aquarian Conspiracy".

11. To keep people everywhere from deciding their own destinies by means of one created crisis after another and then "managing" such crises. This will confuse and demoralize the population to the extent where faced with too many choices, apathy on a massive scale will result. In the case of the US, an agency for Crisis Management is already in place.

It is called the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), whose existence I first enclosed in 1980.

12. To introduce new cults and continue to boost those already functioning which include rock music gangsters such as the Rolling Stones (a gangster group much favoured by European Black Nobility), and all of the Tavistock-created rock groups which began with the Beatles.

13. To continue to build up the cult of Christian Fundamentalism begun by the British East India Company's servant Darby, which will be misused to strengthen the Zionist State of Israel by identifying with the Jews through the myth of "God's chosen people", and by donating very substantial amounts of money to what they mistakenly believe is a religious cause in the furtherance of Christianity.

14. To press for the spread of religious cults such as the Moslem Brotherhood, Moslem Fundamentalism, the Sikhs, and to carry out mind control experiments of the Jim Jones and "Son of Sam" type. It is worth noting that the late Khomeini was a creation of British Military Intelligence Div. 6, MI6. This detailed work spelled out the step-by-step process which the US Government implemented to put Khomeini in power.

15. To export "religious liberation" ideas around the world so as to undermine all existing religions, but more especially the Christian religion. This began with the "Jesuit Liberation Theology", that brought an end to the Somoza Family rule in Nicaragua, and which today is destroying El Salvador, now 25 years into a "civil war". Costa Rica and Honduras are also embroiled in revolutionary activities, instigated by the Jesuits. One very active entity engaged in the so-called liberation theology, is the Communist-oriented Mary Knoll Mission. This accounts for the extensive media attention to the murder of four of Mary Knoll's so-called nuns in El Salvador a few years ago. The four nuns were Communist subversive agents and their activities were widely documented by the Government of El Salvador. The US press and the new media refused to give any space or coverage to the mass of documentation possessed by the Salvadorian Government, which proved what the Mary Knoll Mission nuns were doing in the country. Mary Knoll is in service in many countries, and placed a leading role in bringing Communism to Rhodesia, Mozambique, Angola and South Africa.

16. To cause a total collapse of the world's economies and engender total political chaos.

17. To take control of all foreign and domestic policies of the US.

18. To give the fullest support to supranational institutions such as the United Nations, the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the Bank of International Settlements, the World Court and, as far as possible, make local institutions less effective, by gradually phasing them out or bringing them under the mantle of the UN.

19. To penetrate and subvert all governments, and work from within them to destroy the sovereign integrity of the nations represented by them.

20. To organize a world-wide terrorist apparatus [Al-queda, ISIS, ISIL, etc.] and to negotiate with terrorists whenever terrorist activities take place. It will be recalled that it was Bettino Craxi, who persuaded the Italian and US Governments to negotiate with the Red Brigades kidnapers of Prime Minister Moro and General Dozier. As an aside, Dozier was placed under strict orders not to talk what happened to him. Should he ever break that silence, he will no doubt be made "a horrible example of, in the manner in which Henry Kissinger dealt with Aldo Moro, Ali Bhutto and General Zia ul Haq.

21. To take control of education in America with the intent and purpose of utterly and completely destroying it.

By 1993, the full force effect of this policy is becoming apparent, and will be even more destructive as primary and secondary schools begin to teach "Outcome Based Education" (OBE).

Agenda 21 Summary

August 1992

<http://www.un.org/esa/agenda21/natinfo/wssd/summarypublication.pdf>

United Nations
Department of Public Information

Press Summary of Agenda 21
(based on the final text)

On 22 December 1989, the United Nations General Assembly called for a global meeting that would devise strategies to halt and reverse the effects of environmental degradation "in the context of increased national and international efforts to promote sustainable and environmentally sound development in all countries."

Agenda 21, adopted by the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development on 14 June 1992, is the international community's response to that request.

It is a comprehensive programme of action to be implemented "from now and into the twenty-first century" by Governments, development agencies, United Nations organizations and independent sector groups in every area where human (economic) activity affects the environment.

The programme should be studied in conjunction with the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development and the principles for the sustainable management of forests.

These were also adopted at the Conference, known as the Earth Summit, which was held from 3 to 14 June 1992 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.Underlying Agenda 21 is the notion that humanity has reached a defining moment in its history. We can continue our present policies which serve to deepen the economic divisions within and between countries; which increase poverty, hunger, sickness and illiteracy worldwide; and which are causing the continued deterioration of the ecosystem on which we depend for life on Earth.

Or we can change course. We can improve the living standards of those who are in need.

We can better manage and protect the ecosystem and bring about a more prosperous future for us all.
"No nation can achieve this on its own," states Mr. Maurice Strong, Secretary-General of the Conference, in the preamble to Agenda 21.

"Together we can participate in a global partnership for sustainable development."

This press summary is not an official document. It has been issued to help journalists become familiar with the programme adopted by Governments. It was prepared by the Communications and Project Management Division, Department of Public Information, as part of the United Nations information programme on sustainable development.

Recognizing the integral and interdependent nature of the Earth, our home,

Proclaims that:

Principle 1 Human beings are at the centre of concerns for sustainable development. They are entitled to a healthy and productive life in harmony with nature.

Principle 2 States have, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and the principles of international law, the sovereign right to exploit their own resources pursuant to their own environmental and developmental policies, and the responsibility to ensure that activities within their jurisdiction or control do not cause damage to the environment of other States or of areas beyond the limits of national jurisdiction.

Principle 3 The right to development must be fulfilled so as to equitably meet developmental and environmental needs of present and future generations.

Principle 4 In order to achieve sustainable development, environmental protection shall constitute an integral part of the development process and cannot be considered in isolation from it.

Principle 5 All States and all people shall cooperate in the essential task of eradicating poverty as an indispensable requirement for sustainable development, in order to decrease the disparities in standards of living and better meet the needs of the majority of the people of the world.

- Principle 6 The special situation and needs of developing countries, particularly the least developed and those most environmentally vulnerable, shall be given special priority. International actions in the field of environment and development should also address the interests and needs of all countries.
- Principle 7 States shall cooperate in a spirit of global partnership to conserve, protect and restore the health and integrity of the Earth's ecosystem.
 In view of the different contributions to global environmental degradation, States have common but differentiated responsibilities. The developed countries acknowledge the responsibility that they bear in the international pursuit of sustainable development in view of the pressures their societies place on the global environment and of the technologies and financial resources they command.
- Principle 8 To achieve sustainable development and a higher quality of life for all people, States should reduce and eliminate unsustainable patterns of production and consumption and promote appropriate demographic policies.
- Principle 9 States should cooperate to strengthen endogenous capacity-building for sustainable development by improving scientific understanding through exchanges of scientific and technological knowledge, and by enhancing the development, adaptation, diffusion and transfer of technologies, including new and innovative technologies.
- Principle 10 Environmental issues are best handled with the participation of all concerned citizens, at the relevant level. At the national level, each individual shall have appropriate access to information concerning the environment that is held by public authorities, including information on hazardous materials and activities in their communities, and the opportunity to participate in decision-making processes. States shall facilitate and encourage public awareness and participation by making information widely available. Effective access to judicial and administrative proceedings, including redress and remedy, shall be provided
- Principle 11 States shall enact effective environmental legislation.
 Environmental standards, management objectives and priorities should reflect the environmental and developmental context to which they apply. Standards applied by some countries may be inappropriate and of unwarranted economic and social cost to other countries, in particular developing countries.
- Principle 12 States should cooperate to promote a supportive and open international economic system that would lead to economic growth and sustainable development in all countries, to better address the problems of environmental degradation. Trade policy measures for environmental purposes should not constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination or a disguised restriction on international trade. Unilateral actions to deal with environmental challenges outside the jurisdiction of the importing country should be avoided. Environmental measures addressing trans-boundary or global environmental problems should, as far as possible, be based on an international consensus.
- Principle 13 States shall develop national law regarding liability and compensation for the victims of pollution and other environmental damage.
 States shall also cooperate in an expeditious and more determined manner to develop further international law regarding liability and compensation for adverse effects of environmental damage caused by activities within their jurisdiction or control to area beyond their jurisdiction.
- Principle 14 States should effectively cooperate to discourage or prevent the relocation and transfer to other States of any activities and substances that cause severe environmental degradation or are found to be harmful to human health.
- Principle 15 In order to protect the environment, the precautionary approach shall be widely applied by States according to their capabilities.
 Where there are threats of serious or irreversible damage, lack of full scientific certainty shall not be used as a reason for postponing cost-effective measures to prevent environmental degradation.
- Principle 16 National authorities should endeavour to promote the internalization of environmental costs and the use of economic instruments, taking into account the approach that the polluter should, in principle, bear the cost of pollution, with due regard to the public interest and without distorting international trade and investment.
- Principle 17 Environmental impact assessment, as a national instrument, shall be undertaken for proposed activities that are likely to have a significant adverse impact on the environment and are subject to a decision of a competent national authority.
- Principle 18 States shall immediately notify other States of any natural disasters or other emergencies that are likely to produce sudden harmful effects on the environment of those States.
 Every effort shall be made by the international community to help States so afflicted.
- Principle 19 States shall provide prior and timely notification and relevant information to potentially affected States on activities that may have a significant adverse trans-boundary environmental effect and shall consult with those States at an early stage and in good faith.
- Principle 20 Women have a vital role in environmental management and development.
 Their full participation is therefore essential to achieve sustainable development.

“SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT”

CREATING CRISIS
REINVENTING GOVERNMENT AND REMOVING RIGHTS

“SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT” IS IN MOST SIMPLE TERMS: “A PROCESS” CREATED WITH ENGINEERED CRISIS, BEING ELEVATED THROUGH REPEATED DECLARATIONS OF PSEUDO-FACTS, (OFTEN INACCURATE) WITH A “PRE-ORDAINED SOLUTION” DESIGNED FROM THE BEGINNING.

THE TERM “SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT” WAS FIRST INTRODUCED TO THE WORLD IN THE PAGES OF A 1987 REPORT (OUR COMMON FUTURE) PRODUCED BY THE UNITED NATIONS WORLD COMMISSION ON ENVIRONMENTAL AND DEVELOPMENT, AUTHORED BY G. HARLEM BRUNDTLAND, VP OF THE WORLD SOCIALIST PARTY. THE TERM WAS FIRST OFFERED AS OFFICIAL UN POLICY IN 1992, IN A DOCUMENT CALLED UN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT “AGENDA 21”, ISSUED AT THE UN’S EARTH SUMMIT, TODAY REFERRED TO SIMPLY AS “AGENDA 21”.

“AGENDA 21 PROPOSES AN ARRAY OF DRACONIAN ACTIONS WHICH ARE INTENDED TO BE IMPLEMENTED BY EVERY PERSON ON EARTH...IT CALLS FOR SPECIFIC CHANGES IN THE ACTIVITIES OF ALL PEOPLE... EFFECTIVE EXECUTION OF AGENDA 21 WILL REQUIRE A PROFOUND REORIENTATION OF ALL HUMANS, UNLIKE ANYTHING THE WORLD HAS EVER EXPERIENCED... ” -AGENDA 21: THE EARTH SUMMIT STRATEGY TO SAVE OUR PLANET (EARTH- PRESS, 1993). Alabama Adopts First Official State Ban on UN Agenda 21

<http://www.thenewamerican.com/rio-20/item/11592-alabama-adopts-first-official-state-ban-on-un-agenda-21>Written by Alex Newman agenda-21

Alabama became the first state to adopt a tough law protecting private property and due process by prohibiting any government involvement with or participation in a controversial United Nations scheme known as Agenda 21.

Activists from across the political spectrum celebrated the measure's approval as a significant victory against the UN "sustainability" plot, expressing hope that similar sovereignty-preserving measures would be adopted in other states as the nationwide battle heats up.

The Alabama Senate Bill (SB) 477 legislation, known unofficially among some supporters as the "Due Process for Property Rights" Act, was approved unanimously by both the state House and Senate.

After hesitating for a few days, late last month Republican Governor Robert Bentley finally signed into law the wildly popular measure — but only after heavy pressure from activists forced his hand..

Virtually no mention of the law was made in the establishment press. But analysts said the measure was likely the strongest protection against the UN scheme passed anywhere in America so far.

The law, aimed at protecting private property rights, specifically prevents all state agencies and local governments in Alabama from participating in the global scheme in any way.

"The State of Alabama and all political subdivisions may not adopt or implement policy recommendations that deliberately or inadvertently infringe or restrict private property rights without due process, as may be required by policy recommendations originating in, or traceable to 'Agenda 21,'" the law states, adding a brief background on the UN plan hatched at the 1992 "Earth Summit" in Rio de Janeiro.

The people of Alabama acting through their elected representatives — not UN bureaucrats — have the authority to develop the state's environmental and development policies, the official synopsis of the law explains. Therefore, infringements on the property rights of citizens linked to "any other international law or ancillary plan of action that contravenes the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Alabama" are also prohibited under the new measure.

Of course, as the law points out, the UN has enlisted a broad array of non-governmental and inter-governmental organizations in its effort to foist Agenda 21 on the world — most notably a Germany-based group called ICLEI, formerly known as the International Council of Local Environmental Initiatives.

But the new measure takes direct aim at that problem, too:

"the State of Alabama and all political subdivisions may not enter into any agreement, expend any sum of money, or receive funds contracting services, or giving financial aid to or from" any such entities, as defined in Agenda 21 documents.

"This bill, that would bar the state from taking over private property without due process, is intended to shelter Alabamians from the United Nations Agenda 21, a sustainable development initiative that some conservatives see as a precursor for the creation of a world government," explained Alabama GOP Executive Director T.J. Maloney when announcing that it had been signed into law.

The Republican National Committee (RNC) adopted a resolution earlier this year blasting the global scheme and urging policy makers to oppose it, and state parties have followed suit.

Public support for the Alabama law was overwhelming and bipartisan as citizens who had been terrorized by Agenda 21-linked schemes targeting their private property spoke out.

But according to analysts and state Republican Party officials cited in press reports, Gov. Bentley was originally hesitant to sign the bill — almost certainly due to concerns over the potential loss of some federal funding. The U.S. Senate, of course, has never formally ratified Agenda 21.

But the executive branch — in conjunction with accomplices at the international, state, and local levels — has for two decades been quietly attempting to impose the plan on Americans by stealth, mostly using deceptive terms like "Smart Growth" and "Green."

And proponents of the global scheme consistently threaten that states seeking to protect citizens from the UN plot could end up losing some federal fund

"Every time you take a dollar of federal money, there's strings attached," explained Ken Freeman, chairman of the Alabama-based group Alliance for Citizens Rights (ACR), an organization that fought hard to ensure that the Governor signed the bill into law.

"We were originally walking soft on this issue, to tell when things were going our way, why change anything?"

Alabama Adopts First Official State Ban on UN Agenda 21

- But when Gov. Bentley did not immediately approve the bill, Freeman told a reporter, ACR turned the activism up a notch, urging citizens to contact the Governor's office and express their support for the measure.

The grassroots pressure paid off: Alabama became the first state to be officially shielded by law from UN-linked anti-property rights scheming.

"It seems that Agenda 21 does actually bring people together in communities — just not in the way the U.N. had hoped for," remarked Justice Gilpin-Green in a column for the conservative site Townhall, citing Freeman and other instrumental supporters of the effort.

"Hopefully other states can mirror Alabama's determined nature in passing their anti-Agenda 21 legislation.

It was citizen awareness and direct action that finally brought about the needed changes last week and that same awareness and action will be needed for the future of every other state."

Legislative analysts said the bill, sponsored by GOP state Sen. Gerald Dial, was extremely well crafted: protecting citizens and individual rights from UN decrees in a simple, straightforward manner that Agenda 21 advocates would have a hard time criticizing.

Liberty-minded organizations and lawmakers are already examining the measure for potential use as a model in other states currently struggling to expel the global scheme and its myriad tentacles.

"Alabama House Bill 618 [SB 477] is a large step towards protecting Alabamians against UN meddling.
It protects the due process rights of Alabamians.

"It keeps Constitutional Law above International Law,"

(noted Jason Baker, a Montgomery-based conservative pundit with the Examiner.)

"Now state after state awakens to the threat it poses to freedom and sovereignty."

Across America, Tea Party groups, liberty-minded Democrats, libertarians, and a broad coalition of activists have been turning up the heat on Agenda 21.

Tennessee, for example, adopted a bipartisan state resolution slamming the UN scheme as an "insidious" and "socialist" plot that is completely at odds with American traditions of limited government, individual freedom, private property, and self-governance under the Constitution.

Numerous other states are pursuing similar measures.

A bill similar to Alabama's seeking a complete ban on Agenda 21 and unconstitutional UN "sustainability" efforts in Arizona was approved overwhelmingly in the state Senate.

The legislation died in the state House even after clearing several hurdles, however, when the legislative session ended before a final vote could be taken.

New Hampshire is reportedly working on a bill to ban Agenda 21 that sailed through the state House last month.

Meanwhile, local governments across America — under intense pressure from citizens and activist groups — are slowly awakening to what critics call the "dangers" of the UN scheme.

Dozens of cities and counties have withdrawn from ICLEI in recent years, and as awareness continues to grow, that trend is expected to accelerate.

The UN, however, is doubling down on its controversial plan. In June, governments from all over the world will be meeting in Rio de Janeiro for the so-called "Conference on Sustainable Development" — known as Rio+20 for short.

According to official documents released by the global body, the summit, headed by Chinese Communist Sha Zukang, will be seeking to dramatically transform human civilization under the guise of environmentalism.

Production, education, consumption, individual PROPERTY rights, and even people's thoughts will all be targeted under the global plan to create a so-called "green economy," the UN admitted.

But with the tidal wave of opposition in America growing stronger every single day, analysts expect fierce U.S. opposition — if not from the Obama administration, at least from the increasingly outraged citizenry.

Agenda 21 Eco-Cities Built for Permanent Population Control

<http://www.occupycorporatism.com/agenda-21-eco-cities-built-for-permanent-population-control/>

Susanne Posel_

Occupy Corporatism

July 17, 2012

At the 2012 UN Earth Summit for Sustainable Development Rio+20 there was an initiative to offer “many great opportunities for people from all over the world to come together, build bridges, and draft a common path upon which all residents of this breathtakingly beautiful planet we call home can journey towards a sustainable and equitable future.”

This ideal would be brought to life in the plans of Agenda 21 Eco-cities.

The blueprint for “a prosperous, secure and sustainable future for people and planet” where Agenda 21 comes to life under the directives of the UN and with the cooperation of the world’s governments, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and private-sector corporations.

The Eco-city Builders is a non-profit organization which is a collaboration of international networks of associates that influence and actively participate in local city planning projects all across the US.

Through training courses, they advocate the eco-city approach as the only way to continue in civilized society, through coercive conferences like the International Eco-city Conference series that is an international movement toward building locally and globally.

They have created UN sustainable cities in countries like India, Nepal, Bangladesh, Brazil, Senegal, South Africa, Turkey, nine countries in Europe, Korea, and Australia.

They focus on reworking current issues to match UN Agenda 21 guidelines in planning for local cities including transportation, energy, architecture, design, natural restoration, development, planning, and advocacy.

The push toward the eco-city is the design of a metropolitan city that puts nature first and humanity last.

Their justification for moving people into eco-cities and out of the rural areas is that 90% of people currently live in or near a major city – why not just move everyone in closer together.

They characterize the eco-city as:

Human settlements modelled after sustainable development that functions with natural ecosystems and living organisms

- Reduce the inhabitants ecological impact on the environment
- Restoration of ecosystems after the recolonization of humans into dense cities
- Sustainable living under Agenda 21 supports regional, national and global economic systems.

Urban eco-cities claim can regulate climate change, food distribution, nutrient balance, and water securitization that provide the general masses with provisions, culture and support in ways that are not facilitated by the current living conditions.

These eco-cities can control the inhabitants movements by mandating mass transit and removing the ability to use personal cars, be build and designed in ways that support surrounding environments and natural resources, and mitigate the human impact on climate change as man-made influence is the direct causation of the destruction of the biosphere.

Ultimately, eco-cities are sold as “a practical vision for a sustainable and restorative human presence on this planet and suggests a path towards its achievement through the rebuilding of cities, towns and villages in balance with living systems.”

In Surat, India The Ecological Sequestration Trust (TEST) is funding the building of an eco-city that adheres to Agenda 21 sustainable development models.

Beginning this month, TEST and the South Gujarat Chamber of Commerce is funnelling funds to construct green buildings that reduce heat and regulate water use, pair with an intelligent mass transit system, control traffic and use GPS to map routes for tenants to take on local roads.

Reduced use of existing roadways will be facilitated by an eco-friendly transit system.

Peter Head, director of TEST remarked:

“Surat can be the next Singapore in terms of ecology and water management systems.”

Ecologically sustainable “megacities” will direct three sectors to ensure control over resources – water, energy and food security. Integrating land use plans will provide that by 2013 these schemes will be well underway.

In the plans is a directive to force 75% of the Surat population to use mass transit or “para - transit like rickshaws and other modes of travel.”

Commuter travel will be strongly suggested to reduce CO2 emissions.

SK Datta, senior planner for The Surat Urban Development Authority (SUDA) said:

“The integration of sanitation, sewerage and other amenities along with land use in the master plan 2013 will change the face of Surat city dramatically.”

Control over life in the eco-city will include:

- Reduction of urban city temperature by 3 to 4 degrees
- Regulated community food production spaces
- Mandated reduction of travel time with intelligent transit systems
- Controlled use of energy, water and waste
- Mandated green top technology buildings
- Forced reduction of public water use

Eco-cities are the global Elite’s answer to dense and controlled urban landscapes where human life is severely restricted.

These eco-cities are not in some far off and distant future. They are being constructed NOW.

And soon, they will be the only available place to live.

Earth Charter Preamble

<https://agendatwentyone.wordpress.com/2010/07/08/test-2/>

... we are one human family and one Earth community with a common destiny. We must join together to bring forth a sustainable global society founded on respect for nature.... Towards this end, it is imperative that we, the peoples of Earth, declare our responsibility to one another, to the greater community of life, and to future generations.

According to the Charter, humanity must undergo a global "change of mind and heart." And the UN's all-wise seers visualize themselves as the lead change agents for this global undertaking.

The Earth Charter Initiative, however, candidly admits that it intends to recruit your children as change agents, as well. "We seek to increase the participation of young people in utilizing the Earth Charter as a guideline in their work as active agents of change," says the Earth Charter Initiative website. They have been doing precisely that, and will be accelerating their program throughout the world — including in schools in your neighbourhood.

The U.S. Conference of Mayors is but one of hundreds of organizations, schools, municipalities, and other entities that have signed on as supporters of this declaration of a new "global ethic" for the world.

Introduction

In writing this article I am by necessity going to have to waffle between fact and conjecture. The problem with interpreting political data is that it always requires inferential analysis.

The reasons for this are many-fold, but the most obvious are simply because legislation is drafted in legal language and thus requires such interpretations; and secondly; those interpretations then have to be weighed against a body of empirical evidence that illuminates a political agenda or overall philosophy that has been exhibited over an extended period of time

Nothing is ever as simple as it appears, nor does anything ever happen without a reason.

It is an arduous task to fit all the pieces together and reveal the big picture, but one thing you should be certain of is that there is a framework of thought that precedes all policy.

To garner the full implication of this article, it must be considered in conjunction with the Club of Rome, Agenda 2 That information can be obtained by clicking on their respective links as they appear in this article .

History

Club of Rome

Board members

Mikhail Gorbachev and Maurice Strong, authored the Earth Charter as a project undertaken by their respective organizations, Green Cross International and the Earth Council Alliance

The idea for the Earth Charter was conceived in 1987 by another Club of Rome Board member, Gro Harlem Brundtland. As an interesting side note, Gro Harlem Brundtland served as Prime Minister of Norway for 3 terms. I cannot help but wonder if it is possible that she had any influence in helping fellow Club of Rome board member - Al Gore obtain his Nobel Peace Prize?

Gro Harlem Brundtland was invited by then United Nations Secretary-General Javier Pérez de Cuellar (and current Club of Rome board member) to establish and chair the World Commission on Environment and Development (WCED), widely referred to as the Brundtland Commission.

This commission published its report in 1987 entitled Our Common Future and was the precursor to the Rio Earth Summit which gave rise to, if you notice, both documents parallel one another in their language. (excerpts Agenda 21. below are from Our Common Future.)

"Sustainable global development requires that those who are more affluent adopt lifestyles within the planet's ecological means." "Sustainable development can only be pursued if population size and growth are in harmony with the changing productive potential of the eco-system."

Development

The Earth Charter Commission approved the final text of the Earth Charter in 2000, and it has since been embraced by the United Nations, many religious leaders around the world, the majority of world governments and countless Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO's) and activist groups. Following the release of the Charter a series of international forums, called The Earth Dialogues were held at the United Nations to discuss how the general public could be convinced to adopt the "covenant with the Earth" in a real and personal way

The Earth Charter

(The Other Half of Agenda 21) — Development

(Perhaps most revealing was the forum for Inter-Religious Groups and Spiritual Leaders. As stated in the forums official meeting minutes, the intent was to deal with "the ethics of intolerant righteousness and the greed of short term gain, as these cannot lead us to sustainable development.

"It is clear that our religious institutions have barely begun to articulate the core values of sustainable development. In their fundamentalist – fanatical forms, religions throughout history have justified terrorism, jihads and crusades against people who hold different beliefs and against the Earth itself."

So we can clearly see who they consider their enemy to be.

While supporters of the Earth Charter consider traditional mono-theistic religions to be the main obstacle to peaceful co-existence and sustainable life on Earth, they do not propose doing away with spirituality.

The Earth Charter goes into detail about the need for faith and spirituality in human life.

The preamble of the charter states "the spirit of human solidarity and kinship with all life is strengthened when we live with reverence for the mystery of being, gratitude for the gift of life, and humility regarding the human place in nature."

So what exactly does this Earth Charter contain?

Compared to most UN publications it is very short, only four pages long, direct, and to the point. It clearly lays out the Constitution for a New Green Order. "The choice is ours," it states, "form a global partnership to care for Earth and one another or risk the destruction of ourselves and the diversity of life. Fundamental changes are needed in our values, institutions, and ways of living."

In closing the Earth Charter concludes:

"As never before in history, common destiny beckons us to seek a new beginning. Such renewal is the promise of these Earth Charter principles.

To fulfil this promise, we must commit ourselves to adopt and promote the values and objectives of the Charter. This requires a change of mind and heart.

It requires a new sense of global interdependence and universal responsibility.

We must imaginatively develop and apply the vision of a sustainable way of life locally, nationally, regionally, and globally. Our cultural diversity is a precious heritage and different cultures will find their own distinctive ways to realize the vision. We must deepen and expand the global dialogue that generated the Earth Charter, for we have much to learn from the ongoing collaborative search for truth and wisdom."

"Life often involves tensions between important values. This can mean difficult choices. However, we must find ways to harmonize diversity with unity, the exercise of freedom with the common good, short-term objectives with long-term goals. Every individual, family, organization, and community has a vital role to play.

The arts, sciences, religions, educational institutions, media, businesses, nongovernmental organizations, and governments are all called to offer creative leadership. The partnership of government, civil society, and business is essential for effective governance."

"In order to build a sustainable global community, the nations of the world must renew their commitment to the United Nations, fulfil their obligations under existing international agreements, and support the implementation of Earth Charter principles with an international legally binding instrument on environment and development.

Let ours be a time remembered for the awakening of a new reverence for life, the firm resolve to achieve sustainability, the quickening of the struggle for justice and peace, and the joyful celebration of life."

Unlike Agenda 21, which is a hard law document, the Earth Charter lays out the principles which laws and regulations will have to promote and enforce.

The Charter "was drafted in coordination with a hard law treaty that is designed to provide an integrated legal framework for all environment development law and policy." This hard law treaty is called the International Covenant on Environment and Development and is being prepared by the Commission on Environmental Law at the

International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN), a behemoth agency which oversees 700+ governmental agencies worldwide. Interestingly, Maurice Strong (busy man!) is on the IUCN's Board of Directors. Again, unlike Agenda 21, the Earth Charter is not being forced on local communities from above.

The United Nations is quietly fostering a grass-roots mainstream movement where people personally commit themselves to the Charter. They believe that this personal commitment will be necessary to bring about the societal transformation that the Charter requires.

The primary tool being used to permeate society with awareness and acceptance of the Charter is the Earth Charter Initiative. This is another brain-child of Strong and Gorbachev.

According to their own description

"The Earth Charter Initiative is the collective name for an extraordinarily diverse, global network of people, organizations, and institutions who participate in promoting the Earth Charter, and in implementing its principles in practice. The Initiative is a broad-based, voluntary, civil society effort, but participants include leading international institutions, national governments, university associations, NGOs, cities, faith groups, and many well-known leaders in sustainable development."

The Earth Charter

(The Other Half of Agenda 21) — Development

The Earth Charter Initiative is located in, and managed by, the United Nations University of Peace.

The governing council of this University contains some very interesting names.

Many of its top academics are members of the Club of Rome.

In fact the infamous Maurice Strong is the President of the University and its Rector, Martin Lees, is the Secretary General of the Club of Rome.

The founder and current Chancellor of the University is Robert Muller, former Assistant-Secretary of the United Nations, and its #2 ranked official.

Dr. Muller is very active in the educational and spiritual aspects of the Earth Charter and apparently he has the power of God behind him to give his voice much more moral authority

From his own website Good Morning World you can read the entire list of ideas he has conjured and bounces off God for approval. (scroll down to bottom, and on the way down notice that prior to his final stamp of approval from God, he has been dialoguing with Earth". "Robert Muller Schools are springing up all over the world

God:

"Dear Robert, congratulations for having finished your 4000 ideas. May I ask you: which one do you consider the most important?"

I:

Well, my most important idea and conclusion after all my adult life as a world civil servant is this:

THE UNITED NATIONS MUST BE VASTLY STRENGTHENED TO RESOLVE THE MAJOR GLOBAL PROBLEMS HENCEFORTH INCREASINGLY CONFRONTING HUMANITY AND THE EARTH. IT MUST BE EMPOWERED TO ADOPT AND ENFORCE WORLD LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

God:

"Thank you, dear Robert, for what you are recommending perhaps after all, the greatest jewel of my Creation, the Earth, can be saved."

Pervading Society

Millions of Americans were justifiably shocked and outraged over the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals' notorious ruling on the Pledge of Allegiance.

"Can our courts really have sunk this low?" people asked. "How can little Johnny and Suzie violate the Constitution by uttering the words 'under God' while reciting the Pledge of Allegiance in a public school?"

Yet that is what the Court said in its June 26th, 2002 decision.

This ruling was a continuation of an ongoing subversive campaign aimed at expunging all mention of God and all Christian symbols from the public sphere.

Judicial activists have ordered our students not to invoke the Almighty's name in prayer on school property. Posting the Ten Commandments on classroom walls is also supposedly a major no-no.

Traditional Christmas carols with religious themes are out, as are Nativity scenes. Christmas and Easter vacations have been de-Christianized to, respectively, winter and spring breaks. Many textbooks have dropped the traditional "Christocentric" dating system of B.C. (Before Christ) and A.D. (Anno Domini, In the Year of Our Lord) in favour of B.C.E. (Before the Common Era) and C.E. (Common Era).

Many Christians concerned about this trend are looking hopefully to the U.S. Supreme Court to reverse the 9th Circuit's ruling, as it has done with some of that court's previous radical rulings. Even if that were to happen, developments at the World Summit on Sustainable Development (also known as Earth Summit II) could ultimately undo any Supreme Court reversal.

If the Earth Summiteers have their way, Johnny and Suzie will not be able to pledge allegiance to "one nation, under God," but they will be able to pledge to "One World, under Gaia" — that is, Mother Earth.

They will not be allowed to have the Ten Commandments or the Holy Bible in class, but could soon be bowing before the pagan "Ark of Hope," reading the "sacred" Temenos Books, and reverently intoning the text of the new UN Earth Charter.

Those decrying the 9th Circuit Court's harmful decisions will take little comfort in learning that senior 9th Circuit Court Judge J. Clifford Wallace was among the jurists attending the Johannesburg Summit's Global Judges Symposium.

That meeting was hosted by several globalist institutions with a pronounced hostility toward the United States. The participants, which included judges from Communist regimes, pledged to "apply new legal instruments in keeping with the principles of sustainable development' and the international "Rule of Law."

One of the documents designed to advance this process, the long-awaited Earth Charter, was formally unveiled to the world at Johannesburg.

Crafted by a conclave of "Wise Persons" headed by former Soviet dictator Mikhail Gorbachev, it is set to become the Holy Writ of the UN's new "global spirituality."

Although the Earth Charter is not a legally binding document, its impact may prove damaging and pervasive. Its benign-sounding verbiage and symbolic nature camouflage its dangerous purpose.

The Charter is intended to become a universally adopted creed that will psychologically prepare the world's children to accept the necessity of world government to save the environment.

It is also an outrageous attempt to indoctrinate your children in the UN's New Age paganism.

The Earth Charter

(The Other Half of Agenda 21) — Development

In his opening address to the Rio summit, Strong directed the world's attention to the "Declaration of the Sacred Earth," which was part of the pre-Summit ceremonies. "The changes in behaviour and direction called for here," said Strong, "must be rooted in our deepest spiritual, moral, and ethical values."

According to the declaration, "The [ecological] crisis transcends all national, religious, cultural, social, political and economic boundaries."

"The responsibility of each human being today is to choose between the force of darkness and the force of light," Strong exhorted. "We must therefore transform our attitudes and values, and adopt a renewed respect for the superior laws of Divine Nature."

The "Sacred" Text:

The protection of Earth's vitality, diversity, and beauty is a sacred trust," the Earth Charter asserts.

However, an unprecedented rise in human population has overburdened ecological and social systems.

The foundations of global security are threatened." Thus, "we urgently need a shared vision of basic values to provide an ethical foundation for the emerging world community."

The Charter is making its way to schools, city governments, state legislatures, teachers organizations, civic groups, professional associations, judges, and law schools. The aforementioned Global Judges Symposium concluded its summit activities by issuing the so-called Johannesburg Principles on the Rule of Law and Sustainable Development.

"We recognize," it states, "the importance of ensuring that environmental law and law in the field of sustainable development feature prominently in academic curricula, legal studies and training at all levels, in particular among judges and others engaged in the judicial process."

The judicial symposium was sponsored by the United Nations Environmental Program (largely supported by U.S. tax dollars) and the Environmental Law Institute, one of the principal eco-activist legal groups supported by U.S. tax-exempt foundations.

For the amount of time, effort, and money invested in the Earth Charter program over the past decade, its profile at the 2002 Johannesburg Earth Summit was remarkably subdued. Apparently, the plan is to orchestrate a global stealth campaign for the Charter among a sympathetic core constituency. As the campaign picks up steam, activists will obtain signatures and public support for this new global ethic from local, state, and national governments, schools, and organizations – without stirring the suspicions and opposition of churches, pro-life, and pro-family forces. Once a critical mass of support has been built among students, teachers, journalists, and public officials, the Charter will appear to be universally accepted and unstoppable.

Transformation of the Soul:

As many of you are aware there is an ongoing onslaught against traditional Judeo-Christian religions and values, while simultaneously seemingly embracing Islamic values.

In fact, all of our usual 'players' (Al Gore, Maurice Strong, Mikhail Gorbachev, et al) claim to be devout disciples of the Baha'i Faith.

Baha'i literature proclaims the following:

"National rivalries, hatreds, and intrigues will cease, and racial animosity and prejudice will be replaced by racial amity, understanding and cooperation. The causes of religious strife will be permanently removed, economic barriers and restrictions will be completely abolished, and the inordinate distinction between classes will be obliterated. Destitution on the one hand, and gross accumulation of ownership on the other, will disappear."

Baha'i grew out of Islam, and is in fact a stepchild of the Islamic faith, albeit a despised one. Rather than naming Muhammad as the greatest of the prophets as the Muslims do, Baha'is hold Baha'u'llah to be the greatest of the prophets while extolling the virtues of Gaia, Mother Earth.

The Baha'i faith has become a popular religion in an environment of ecumenism, inclusiveness and political correctness. Embraced eagerly by the United Nations and other interfaith organizations, Baha'i is a growing humanist influence on our world.

There are currently 17,148 Local Spiritual Assemblies of the Baha'i faith in the world and 4,515 in the United States alone. Members claim a presence in 235 countries and their literature is translated into 700 languages with a total world membership estimated at 5,000,000. The Baha'i Faith maintains chapels and meditation rooms within the United Nations.

Notice how their mission statement dovetails with Agenda 21?

Let's expound on this a bit, using our good buddy Maurice Strong as an example.

Maurice Strong, founder and Secretary General of the United Nations Environment Programme and Senior Advisor to Kofi Annan, Founder of the Earth Council and the Earth Charter Initiative, and former President of the United Nations University of Peace.

He, more than anyone else, has been the architect of the Global Green Agenda.
Strong is a devout Baha'i

Blasphemous Symbols

Weeks before the start of Earth Summit II, the Earth Charter arrived in Johannesburg for a series of rituals, celebrations, and promotions aimed at setting the spiritual tone for the global conference.

The venerated Charter is housed and transported in the Ark of Hope, a blasphemous mimicry of the biblical Ark of the Covenant, which held the two tablets containing the Ten Commandments that God gave to Moses.

The Ark of Hope is actually designed to look like the Ark of the Covenant and its devotees carry it around with worshipful solemnity. Accompanying the Charter and the Ark are the Temenos Books, containing aboriginal Earth Masks and "visual prayers/affirmations for global healing, peace, and gratitude," created by 3,000 artists, teachers, students, and mystics.

The Earth Charter ...and The Ark of The Gaia Covenant

According to the Temenos Project, which launched the effort,

A temenos is "a magical sacred circle where special rules apply and extraordinary events inevitably occur." The Ark, Charter, and Temenos Books were placed on display at the UN summit site and then put to work building the new global ethic.

Day after day, UN acolytes carried the sacred objects from school to school, where tens of thousands of children already had been prepped with Earth Charter propaganda. Public ceremonies with mayors and celebrities augmented the school events.

The summit's opening day featured a four-hour symposium entitled, "Educating for Sustainable Living with the Earth Charter." Steven Rockefeller, a religion professor and scion of the fabulously wealthy banking family that donated the land for the UN headquarters in New York, was preeminent among the presenters.

Professor Rockefeller is also chairman of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund and the Earth Charter International Drafting Committee.

According to Rockefeller, the way to go about "building peace on earth" is through the "inclusive, integrated and spiritual approach" of the Earth Charter. Covering the summit for USA Radio, Cathie Adams told THE NEW AMERICAN that Rockefeller described the Charter as an effort to incorporate the "wisdom of the world's religions." Razeena Wagiet, environmental adviser to South Africa's national minister of education, was one of the presenters who followed Rockefeller to the podium.

According to Wagiet, astrologers have foreseen that :

the world is about to enter a "Golden Age, a New Age, an Age of Aquarius."

Earth Charter Integration

Outlining how the Earth Charter is to be integrated into lifelong education for all, Hans van Ginkel, chairman of the International Association of Universities, told the symposium: "We must mobilize all in education about sustainability; that's how we meet the next generation." Sixteen million teachers must be trained, he noted, and "the only way to move forward is by integrating the Earth Charter into curriculum.

The Stong-Gorbachev Earth Charter effort is already fast at work on that score.

Their website declares: "The Earth Charter values and principles must be taught, contemplated, applied and internalized. To this end, the Earth Charter needs to be incorporated into both formal and non-formal education. This process must involve various communities, continue to integrate the Charter into the curriculum of schools and universities, and constitute an ongoing process of life-long learning." According to the same website, the Earth Council, UNESCO, and the Earth Charter Initiative folks already have many of the curriculum materials and programs prepared; in fact, they're already up and running in schools across the globe.

Some American schools got an advance start on the rest of humanity with Charter activities, coinciding with the journey last year of the Ark and its contents to the UN in New York. The pilgrimage began in Vermont, where Steven Rockefeller, in his role as dean of religion at Middlebury College, held a sacred Earth ceremony. Joining him and the other worshipers was Jane Goodall, the celebrity chimpanzee expert who has become a fixture at forums sponsored by Mikhail Gorbachev and the UN.

The Charter was carried on foot, by car, and by boat, arriving in New York City on November 8th, to be greeted by Pete Seeger, the leftist folksinger.

On January 24th, the Ark and Charter were carried in a procession from the Interfaith Centre of New York to the United Nations Church Centre Chapel, a distance of about 15 blocks.

The Charter's authors are not shy about the importance of their handiwork.

"My hope is that this charter will be a kind of Ten Commandments, a 'Sermon on the Mount,' that provides a guide for human behaviour toward the environment in the next century and beyond,"

Gorbachev stated in a 1997 interview with the Los Angeles Times. Canadian billionaire socialist Maurice Strong, who presided over the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, is somewhat less tentative.

"The real goal of the Earth Charter," said Strong, "is that it will in fact become like the Ten Commandments."

Mr. Strong had high hopes that the Charter, conceived in 1987, would be adopted by the world at Rio.

It was decided that the world was not ready for the release of a charter to invigorate the world into embracing a paradigm of sustainable ? consciousness. ?

My interpretation of this hesitation is simply due to the fact that the notion of man-made global climate change had not been indoctrinated thoroughly enough to start cramming something as radical as the Earth Charter down everyone's throats without threat of massive resistance.

The Earth Charter

(The Other Half of Agenda 21) --- Development

Page 6

He is the author of most of the key UN environmental policies and plans including Agenda 21, the Earth Charter, the Kyoto Protocol and the UN report on Global Governance.

While he chaired the Rio Earth Summit, outside his wife Hanne and 300 followers called the Wisdom-Keepers, continuously beat drums, chanted prayers to Gaia, and tended sacred flames in order to "establish and hold the energy field" for the duration of the summit.

You can view actual footage of these ceremonies on YouTube.

He founded the Manitou Institute where various Hindu, Buddhist, and New Age groups perform rituals to heal Gaia. The Institutes Mission is "to perpetuate the ancient tradition of peoples of many tribes journeying here for a sacred connection to the Earth."

Very Gaian!!The Baha'i faith sees the United Nations as the vessel by which the unifying of the world's religions into one faith will come to fruition. Their plan for the future of our world and the role of the United Nations overseeing a regionalised world mirror almost directly the proposal outlined by Maurice' Strong Commission on Global Governance. Baha'i writings state "the oneness of humanity implies an organic change in the structure of present-day society, a change such as the world has not yet experienced. It calls for no less than the reconstruction and the demilitarization of the whole civilized world – a world organically unified in all the essential aspects of life, its political machinery, its spiritual aspiration, its trade and finance, its script and language."

In a statement to the World Summit on Sustainable Development in August 2002, the Baha'i Community wrote, "despite significant achievements, the United Nations has yet to grasp fully both the constructive role that religion can play in creating a peaceful and prosperous global order, and the destructive impact that religious fanaticism can have on the stability and progress of the world. The UN must work untiringly to exorcise religious bigotry and superstition from within their faith traditions and renounce claims to religious exclusivity and finality."

In other words Christianity, Judaism and traditional Islam are forms of religious bigotry that must be exorcised from the world system.

The Baha'i organization claims to have a close working relationship with the World Health Organization (WHO) and with the United Nations Environment Programme. It is also involved in joint activities with UNIFEM and UNICEF as well as many other religious, environmental and social programs within the UN. The Baha'i spiritual beliefs mirror almost exactly those described by the Lucis Trust and AAC described below. They too are waiting for the imminent arrival of an 'Enlightened Being' who will lead humanity into a 'new world order' and maintain a presence within the U.N.

"For Baha'is, the term "new world order" has a special and clear-cut meaning. More than 100 years ago, Baha'u'llah invoked the phrase to categorize a future series of momentous changes in the political, social and religious life of the world. "The signs of impending convulsions and chaos can now be discerned, inasmuch as the prevailing Order appeareth to be lamentably defective,"

He wrote. "Soon will the present-day order be rolled up and a new one spread out in its stead. Baha'is understand that the dramatic changes and transformations we have witnessed over the last century – and which we are continuing to see – have been initiated by the coming of a new Messenger of God and influenced by the breaking light of a new Revelation."

The Aquarian Age Community

The AAC was founded by the Lucis Trust (subsidiary of Lucifer Publishing Company) and describes its mission as "preparing the way for the imminent appearance of the World Spiritual Teacher."

They are an official consultative NGO in association with the United Nations' Department of Public Information and their website is sponsored by the UN. On their website they state:

"We have an informal network at the UN, a humanity underground. It consists of those who are committed, aware, and striving to bring the New World to birth. It consists of people in high places and in low. The patient Secretary who has been 30 years with the UN, but lives with the vision and the spirit; of the professionals, and undersecretaries and heads of departments who are acting out the imperatives that their own inner vision gives them. Some few are conscious of the sources of their inspiration; most are not. They are the Karma Yogis of our time – those whose path of spirituality is to achieve through doing – to grow through serving. They are found not only in the secretariat but also in the delegations to the UN, among the diplomats and their staffs, and also among folks like us, representatives of non-governmental organizations around the UN." – link No doubt the 'patient Secretary' refers to Robert Muller who served as Assistant Sec-Gen of the UN for decades, or perhaps Maurice Strong who also served in this position.

The AAC has a startling website that clearly outlines their goals and influence within the UN.

Even a brief perusal leaves little doubt of their true agenda. Articles on their site include:

THE SPIRITUAL IMPULSE BEHIND THE UNITED NATIONS PLANETARY INITIATION
AND THE WORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS -
THE NEW WORLD ORDER AND THE WORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS -
SPIRITUALITY AT THE UNITED NATIONS -
PREPARATION FOR THE REAPPEARANCE OF THE WORLD SPIRITUAL TEACHER

It would take a hundred pages to analyse all the material on the ACC site so I encourage the reader to take a look at the articles listed above for themselves.

Perhaps the most interesting pages are the minutes from their meetings discussing how they will "recognise the World Spiritual Teacher and introduce him to the world."
Top UN officials attend these meetings!

The Earth Charter

(The Other Half of Agenda 21) — Development Conclusion

Obviously to fully understand the implications of the Earth Charter one must wander down some dark labyrinthine corridors that could generate entire books unto themselves. All I could do within this article is give sketchy overviews that hopefully enable the reader to discern for themselves how all the pieces are fitting together.

In my previous article, Artificial Paradise, Inc. I listed some of the organizations that are committed to promulgating the spiritual/educational aspects of Agenda 21 via the Earth Charter.

We will never know if these people actually believe this stuff, or merely recognized how convenient it would be to have everyone else subscribe to this paganism.

Whatever that case may be, it is obvious that Earth worshippers would gleefully embrace policies that serve to protect her. When the Earth Charter is considered in conjunction with Agenda 21 then the achievement of a total transformation of the world can be more fully comprehended. Global citizenship, ecological stewardship, social equity, and all these new-age terms take on meaning with much greater significance.

It is hard to point to the Earth Charter alone and ascribe to it just how insidious it is, for it must be weighed against all the beliefs of the individuals and organizations that are promoting it.

I hope I succeeded in bringing more clarity to this endeavour.

There is nothing wrong with spiritual enlightenment as they portray it, however, they are merely the repeater of words and seek to have others "think" accordingly. This is NOT enlightenment. Just as one could be quite adept at quoting the Bible and the words of Christ, this does not necessarily make them in any way Christ-like.

What should be glaringly obvious to anyone is that enlightenment is a process that requires a complete regression of developmental structuring of the ego.

It is a lifetime journey that defies a 'thought-process'.

Perhaps it would be nice to have the spiritual connections of the Nav'i as portrayed in the movie Avatar, but this is an evolutionary process and cannot be the outcome of mandates, rules, regulations, or laws. As moving as the concepts may be intellectually, mankind is a long ways off from this experience of 'satori'. In fact, although we have evolved greatly in our scientific/industrial capacities, mankind on the whole hasn't changed much since the beginning of recorded history. The current divorce rate in the United States is approximately 45% and another estimated 25% that wish they could get divorced but because of a variety of reasons they stick it out. We can't even get along with the 'loves of our lives' for an extended period of time, yet they purport how the world is ready to come together in a blissful union. It is recognition of the fact that contrived psychologies may be intellectually stirring for some period of time, but they can never be transformative, that gives me hope that eventually this whole house of cards will collapse.

We are in for some tough times, but in the long run 'individuality' will prevail.

Check out the ICLEI influence on our own Gold Coast....They enforce International Covenant guidelines on our Council.....divert our rates to regional authorities.... The Lucis Trust

The Lucis Trust is the Publishing House which prints and disseminates United Nations material.

It is a devastating indictment of the New Age and Pagan nature of the UN.

Lucis Trust was established in 1922 as Lucifer Trust by Alice Bailey as the publishing company to disseminate the books of Bailey and Blavatsky and the Theosophical Society.

The title page of Alice Bailey's book, 'Initiation, Human and Solar' was originally printed in 1922, and clearly shows the publishing house as 'Lucifer Publishing Co In 1923.'

Bailey changed the name to Lucis Trust, because Lucifer Trust revealed the true nature of the New Age Movement too clearly.

(Constance Cumbey, The Hidden Dangers of the Rainbow, p. 49).

A quick trip to any New Age bookstore will reveal that many of the hard-core New Age books are published by Lucis Trust.

At one time, the Lucis Trust office in New York was located at 666 United Nations Plaza and is a member of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations under a slick program called "World Goodwill".

In an Alice Bailey book called "Education for a New Age"; she suggests that in the new age "World Citizenship should be the goal of the enlightened, with a world federation and a world brain.

" In other words - a One World Government New World Order. Lucis Trust is sponsored by among others Robert McNamara, former minister of Defense in the USA, president of the World Bank, member of the Rockefeller Foundation, and Thomas Watson (IBM, former ambassador in Moscow)

Lucis Trust sponsors among others the following organizations:

UN

Greenpeace International - Greenpeace USA- Amnesty International-UNICEF

The United Nations has long been one of the foremost world harbingers for the "New Spirituality" and the gathering "New World Order" based on ancient occult and freemasonic principles.

Seven years after the birth of the UN, a book was published by the theosophist and founder of the Lucis Trust, Alice Bailey, claiming that,

"Evidence of the growth of the human intellect along the needed receptive lines [for the preparation of the New Age] can be seen in the "planning" of various nations and in the efforts of the United Nations to formulate a world plan... From the very start of this unfoldment, three occult factors have governed the development of all these plans"

[Alice B. Bailey, Discipleship in the New Age (Lucis Press, 1955), Vol. II, p.35.]

Although she did not spell out clearly the identity of these 'three occult factors', she did reveal to her students that,

"Within the United Nations is the germ and seed of a great international and meditating, reflective group - a group of thinking and informed men and women in whose hands lies the destiny of humanity.

This is largely under the control of many fourth ray disciples, if you could but realize it, and their point of meditative focus is the intuitional or Buddhic plane - the plane upon which all hierarchical activity is today to be found" [Ibid. p.220.]

To this end, the Lucis Trust, under the leadership of Foster and Alice Bailey, started a group called 'World Goodwill' - an official non-governmental organization within the United Nations.

The stated aim of this group is,

"to cooperate in the world of preparation for the reappearance of the Christ"

[One Earth, the magazine of the Findhorn Foundation, October/November 1986, Vol. 6, Issue 6, p.24.]

But the esoteric work inside the UN does not stop with such recognized occult groupings.

Much of the impetus for this process was initiated through the officer ship of two Secretary-Generals of the UN, Dag Hammarskjöld (held office: 1953-1961) and U Thant (held office: 1961-1971) who succeeded him, and one Assistant Secretary-general, Dr. Robert Muller.

In a book written to celebrate the philosophy of Teilhard de Chardin (and edited by Robert Muller), it is revealed,

"Dag Hammarskjöld, the rational Nordic economist, had ended up as a mystic. He too held at the end of his life that spirituality was the ultimate key to our earthly fate in time and space"

[Robert Muller (ed.), The Desire to be Human:

A Global Reconnaissance of Human Perspectives in an Age of Transformation (Mirvana, 1983), p.304.]

Sri Chinmoy, the New Age guru, meditation leader at the UN, wrote:

"the United Nations is the chosen instrument of God; to be a chosen instrument means to be a divine messenger carrying the banner of God's inner vision and outer manifestation."

William Jasper, author of "A New World Religion" describes the religion of the UN:

"...a weird and diabolical convergence of New Age mysticism, pantheism, aboriginal animism atheism, communism, socialism, Luciferian occultism, apostate Christianity, Islam, Taoism, Buddhism, and Hinduism".

At <http://www.lucistrust.org> you can find out much more about them and how they're involved with the work of the United Nations by following their link "World Goodwill" at the top of their home page.

My Exploited Father in Law:

"For a long time I felt that FDR had developed many thoughts and ideas that were his own to benefit this country, the United States.

But, he didn't. Most of his thoughts, his political ammunition, as it were, were carefully manufactured for him in advanced by the Council on Foreign Relations One World Money group..." Brilliantly, with great gusto, like a fine piece of artillery, he exploded that prepared "ammunition" in the middle of an unsuspecting target, the American people, and thus paid off and returned his internationalist political support.

The UN is but a long range, international banking apparatus nearly set up for financial and economic profit by a small group of powerful One World Revolutionaries, hungry for profit and power.

The depression was the calculated 'shearing' of the public by the World Money powers, triggered by the planned sudden shortage of supply of call money in the New York money market...

The One World Government leaders and their ever close bankers have now acquired full control of the money and credit machinery of the U.S. via the creation of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank."

The Georgia Guidestones

America's Most Mysterious Monument "When Man Reawakens, Let Him Behold..."

The Georgia Guidestones

are a strange collection of standing stones near the remote town of Elberton, Georgia.

At once a Rosetta Stone, an astronomical observatory, and a road map for rebuilding civilization, the Guidestones seem to be built as much for the survivors of a post-apocalyptic future as for the thousands of tourists who visit them each year.

Built in 1980, they are primarily composed of six slabs of granite: one central pillar, four "major" stones that fan out from the centre, and a capstone.

The capstone has engravings on all four of its sides in four different ancient languages, all of which read, "Let these be guidestones to an Age of Reason," when translated.

The major stones are each engraved on both sides, and each side contains text in one of eight modern languages asserting the same ten guidelines.

"And standing with the stones is a mystery — a mystery of who is behind the erection of The Georgia Guidestones. Their identity is intended to be a secret forever."

20th Century Rosetta Stone The Megaliths feature repeated messages in twelve different languages. Ten precepts or guidelines are repeated on the four main standing stones in English, Russian, Mandarin, Arabic, Classical Hebrew, Swahili, Hindi and Spanish. The capstone features the simple phrase "Let these be Guidestones to an Age of Reason" appearing in Sanskrit, Babylonian Cuneiform, Classical Greek, and Egyptian hieroglyphics.

The Guidestones are massive and built to last, and visitors in the future will be able to translate languages from our time in the same way the Rosetta Stone was used to crack the long lost secret of Hieroglyphics.

The ancient written languages etched into the capstone serve the same purpose, and will allow future generations to peer into the ancient roots of written communication.

America's Most Mysterious Monument
"When Man Reawakens, Let Him Behold..."

Astronomical Observatory

The Guidestones are also useful in tracking the course of the stars and the seasons of the year. A face level notch known as the "mail slot" is cut into the central pillar, allowing visitors to calculate the date of the Vernal and Autumnal Equinox based on the rising of the Sun. Polaris may be sighted on any clear night through round, upward facing hole in the central pillar, and a notch cut into the top of the capstone casts a beam of sunlight on the monument each day at noon.

For an "Age of Reason"

"You may put a hundred questions to these rough hewn giants as they bend in grim contemplation of their fallen companions, but your curiosity falls dead in the vast sunny stillness that enshrouds them." -Henry James

In contrast to the looming silence of Stonehenge, the Georgia Guidestones speak with a very definite voice. Each of the eight faces of the monument carry a message in the form of ten precepts, or guidelines. Conceived by the megalith's mysterious creator, R.C. Christian, (a Rosicrucian) these guidelines seem to speak to how man can rebuild civilization in a post-apocalyptic future, or how to avoid finding ourselves in one.

Strange New "2014" Addition to the Georgia Guidestones (Updated)

A new block on which is inscribed "2014" was recently added to the Georgia Guidestones.
This eerie and mysterious monument just became even more eerie and mysterious.

In my article Sinister Sites : The Georgia Guidestones, I took a thorough look at the Georgia Guidestones and at its ominous message for humanity. In short, it is all about massive depopulation, world government, a single language and a single religion. While this monument was built in 1980, its "commandments" keep increasing in relevancy as the world elite steers the masses towards a New World Order.

A recent addition to the monument- a block on which is inscribed 2014 – was placed inside an indent between the English and the Spanish slab. While apparently trivial, this block nevertheless proves that the Guidestones is still updated by its sponsors and that its message is, more than ever, relevant in 2014.

Why is 2014 inscribed on that block? Will an event lead to the fruition of one of the Guidestones' commandments in 2014? Considering the fact that the first commandment is about maintaining the world population under 500 million, this is somewhat disturbing.

The Georgia Guidestones is therefore not abandoned but alive and well.

The monument is maintained, updated and monitored.

In short, the commandments inscribed on the stones are not a philosophical fantasy dreamt up by strange people 34 years ago, it is a concrete plan that was firmly believed in by the elite.

Another recent addition to the monuments is camera surveillance.

It is rather appropriate that a monument celebrating the New World Order is "under video surveillance at all times"

Smart Meter Dangers: The Health Hazards of Wireless

Electromagnetic Radiation Exposure The Latest from Dr. David O. Carpenter This article by the late Dr. Ilya Sandra Perlingieri was first published on Global Research on July 13, 2012.

Over the past two years, there has been mounting medical and scientific evidence of the grave biological dangers to humans from so-called "Smart" Meters exposure that are being installed by the hundreds of thousands all over North America and Europe.

Scientists have been documenting the EMF/RF exposure effects for decades. However, it is only in the last two years, with the constant wireless electromagnetic radiation exposure to these new meters, that other medical evidence (down to the cellular level) has been reported.

In the US, there has never been a mandate to force these utility meters on millions of unsuspecting people. There has been no Precautionary Principle used, while corporate greed has abounded.
 Various utility companies have not told their customers of the dangers.

What they told their customers about these new meters was that it would update the grid and help them control individual usage. Customers have not been told about the serious health problems that these RF pulsing meters cause. We have been given no informed consent to this dangerous but invisible exposure.

With broken and unethical global social mores, this is considered standard business practice: to deceive customers, while gaining enormous profits. As long as a "revolving-door" policy remains between corporations and [no longer] public agencies, citizens will not have their medically validated concerns ever addressed.

The corporate bottom line, profit, is what counts –not our well-being and safety. Further, the synergistic effects of various wireless technologies combined with other environmental toxins to which we all are exposed daily have not been tested.

Over the past year, I have already personally seen the damage these dangerous meters have done to numerous people and several animals I know –all across the US.

Although not generally reported by mainstream media, the serious impacts on peoples' health are already evident.

A short list includes: neurological impairment, ear pain and hearing problems, breathing dysfunctions, chest pains and heart ailments, burning skin, sleep disturbances, headaches, depression, vision troubles, blood pressure changes, sterility, autism, and neurodegenerative diseases.

There are numerous reports of people who are completely incapacitated from EMF exposure. Several people I know are almost constantly debilitated and housebound, due to city-wide exposure to cell towers and Wi-Fi that has become ubiquitous.

Most allopathic physicians are not trained in environmental medicine, and so often symptoms are mis-diagnosed. On July 8, Global Research published Prof. Tracy's important Smart Meter update, "Looming Health Crisis: Wireless Technology and the Toxification of America":
www.globalresearch.ca/index.php?context=va&aid=31816

Although Dr. David O. Carpenter notes below that the "evidence of the link between long-term cell phone use and brain cancer comes primarily from Northern Europe",

I know personally of two people who have died from glioma cancer. The glioma cancer originated behind the ear where the cell phone was held. This used to be a rare form of malignant brain cancer.

It is now thought to be epidemic, but not reported by the media, as more than 6-billion cell phones are in use globally.
 Senator Ted Kennedy died of glioma cancer.

There is a very long history of "expendable" customers [we're no longer called citizens or people], while multi-national corporations continue to make tremendous profits on dangerous drugs and technologies: toxic shock syndrome; Vioxx; thalidomide, HPV vaccines. This list is very long and well documented.

For example, in September 2011, the Los Angeles Times reported "that [prescription] drug deaths now outnumber traffic fatalities in US." See: <http://articles.latimes.com/2011/sep/17/local/la-me-drugs-epidemic-20110918>

What is now termed Electro-Hypersensitivity (EHS), and is recognized in Sweden as a documented debilitating illness, can actually be called poisoning, as humans and all other living organisms are being damaged by these meters' moment-to-moment RF pulsing rates.

For more than 30 years, distinguished professor Olle Johansson, of the Karolinska Institute, Sweden, has been a highly visible and ardent advocate for those who have been harmed by this technology.

His scientific research is ground-breaking. In Sweden, more than 248,000 people are ill from EHS.

Most laws are completely outdated to address this crisis. In the US and Canada, many poisoned customers cannot opt-out. Or, if this is available to them, customers are charged high opt-out fees as well as monthly fees. It is a win-win situation financially for the various utility companies, while customers are being harmed daily.

The corporate bottom line takes precedence over health and safety.

Smart Meter Dangers: The Health Hazards of Wireless

In a Canadian magazine, La maison du 21e siècle [the house of the 21st century], Dr. David O. Carpenter, a distinguished physician and former founding dean of the School of Public Health, State University, Albany (New York), has just published a letter called "Smart Meters: Correcting the Gross Misinformation."() It is here reproduced in its entirety:

"We, the undersigned are a group of scientists and health professionals who together have co-authored hundreds of peer-reviewed studies. We wish to correct some of the gross misinformation found in the letter regarding wireless "smart" meters that was published in the Montreal daily Le Devoir on May 24.

Submitted by a group Quebec engineers, physicists and chemists, the letter in question reflects an obvious lack of understanding of the science behind the health impacts of the radiofrequency (RF)/microwave EMFs emitted by these meters.

The statement that "Thousands of studies, both epidemiological and experimental in humans, show no increase in cancer cases as a result of exposure to radio waves of low intensity..." is false(1).

In fact, only a few such studies — two dozen case-control studies of mobile phone use, certainly not thousands, have reported no elevations of cancer, and most were funded by the wireless industry.

In addition, these reassuring studies contained significant experimental design flaws, mainly the fact that the populations followed were too small and were followed for a too short period of time.

Non industry-funded studies have clearly demonstrated a significant increase in cancer cases among individuals who have suffered from prolonged exposure to low-level microwaves, transmitted notably by radio antennas. The effects were best documented in meta-analyses that have been published and that include grouped results from several different studies: these analyses consistently showed an increased risk of brain cancer among regular users of a cell phone who have been exposed to microwaves for at least ten years.

Brain Cancer Rates

Furthermore, the argument that brain cancer rates do not indicate an overall increase in incidence is not evidence that cell phones are safe: the latency for brain cancer in adults after environmental exposure can be long, up to 20-30 years. Most North Americans haven't used cell phones extensively for that long.

The evidence of the link between long-term cell phone use and brain cancer comes primarily from Northern Europe, where cell phones have been commonly used since the 1990s. Children are especially at risk.

In May 2012, the U.K.'s Office of National Statistics reported a 50 percent increase in incidence of frontal and temporal lobe tumours in children between 1999 and 2009. This statistic is especially disturbing since in May 2011, after reviewing the published scientific literature regarding cancers affecting cell phone users, the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) classified radiofrequency radiation as a 2B, possible human carcinogen.

Despite the absence of scientific consensus, the evidence is sufficiently compelling for any cautious parent to want to reduce their loved one's exposure to RF/microwave emissions as much as possible, as recommended by various countries such as Austria, Belgium, Germany, Russia and the United Kingdom.

Electro Sensitivity

Public fears about wireless smart meters are well-founded. They are backed by various medical authorities such as the Public Health Departments of Santa Cruz County (California) and of Salzburg State (Austria). These authorities are worried about the growing number of citizens who say they have developed electro hypersensitivity (EHS), especially since for many of them, the symptoms developed after the installation of such meters (it takes some time for most people to link the two events).

Since the turn of the millennium, people are increasingly affected by ambient microwaves due to the growing popularity of wireless devices such as cell phones and Wi-Fi Internet.

Therefore, the mass deployment of smart grids could expose large chunks of the general population to alarming risk scenarios without their consent. According to seven surveys done in six European countries between 2002 and 2004, about 10% of Europeans have become electro sensitive, and experts fear that percentage could reach 50% by 2017.

The most famous person to publicly reveal her electro sensitivity is Gro Harlem Brundtland, formerly Prime Minister of Norway and retired Director of the World Health Organization (WHO).

Smart Meter Dangers: The Health Hazards of Wireless

While there is no consensus on the origins and mechanisms of EHS, many physicians and other specialists around the world have become aware that EHS symptoms (neurological, dermatological, acoustical, etc.) seem to be triggered by exposure to EMF levels well below current international exposure limits, which are established solely on short-term thermal effects.(2) Organizations such as the Austrian Medical Association and the American Academy of Environmental Medicine have recognized that the ideal way to treat of EHS is to reduce EMF exposure.

Therefore, caution is warranted because the growing variety of RF/microwave emissions produced by many wireless devices such as smart meters have never been tested for their potential biological effects.

Well-known bio-effects

While the specific pathways to cancer are not fully understood, it is scientifically unacceptable to deny the weight of the evidence regarding the increase in cancer cases in humans that are exposed to high levels of RF/microwave radiation.

The statement that "there is no established mechanism by which a radio wave could induce an adverse effect on human tissue other than by heating" is incorrect, and reflects a lack of awareness and understanding of the scientific literature on the subject. In fact, more than a thousand studies done on low intensity, high frequency, non-ionizing radiation, going back at least fifty years, show that some biological mechanisms of effect do not involve heat. This radiation sends signals to living tissue that stimulate biochemical changes, which can generate various symptoms and may lead to diseases such as cancer.

Even though RF/microwaves don't have the energy to directly break chemical bonds, unlike ionizing radiation such as X-rays, there is scientific evidence that this energy can cause DNA damage indirectly leading to cancer by a combination of biological effects.

Recent publications have documented the generation of free radicals, increased permeability of the blood brain barrier allowing potentially toxic chemicals to enter the brain, induction of genes, as well as altered electrical and metabolic activity in human brains upon application of cell phone RF/microwaves similar to those produced by smart meters.

These effects are cumulative and depend on many factors including RF/microwave levels, frequency, waveform, exposure time, bio-variability between individuals and combination with other toxic agents. Clear evidence that these microwaves are indeed bioactive has been shown by the fact that low-intensity EMFs have proven clinically useful in some circumstances.

Pulsed EMFs have long been used to successfully treat bone fractures that are resistant to other forms of therapy. More recently, frequency-specific, amplitude-modulated EMFs have been found useful to treat advanced carcinoma and chronic pain.

High frequency EMFs such as the microwaves used in cell phones, smart meters, Wi-Fi and cordless "DECT" phones, appear to be the most damaging when used commonly. Most of their biological effects, including symptoms of electro hypersensitivity, can be seen in the damage done to cellular membranes by the loss of structurally-important calcium ions. Prolonged exposure to these high frequencies may eventually lead to cellular malfunction and death.

Furthermore, malfunction of the parathyroid gland, located in the neck just inches from where one holds a cell phone, may actually cause electro hypersensitivity in some people by reducing the background level of calcium ions in the blood. RF/microwave radiation is also known to decrease the production of melatonin, which protects against cancer, and to promote the growth of existing Cancer cells

Early warning scientists attacked

In recommending that the Precautionary Principle be applied in EMF matters, the European Environment Agency's Director Jacqueline McGlade wrote in 2009: "We have noted from previous health hazard histories such as that of lead in petrol, and methyl mercury, that 'early warning' scientists frequently suffer from discrimination, from loss of research funds, and from unduly personal attacks on their scientific integrity. It would be surprising if this is not already a feature of the present EMF controversy..."

" Such unfortunate consequences have indeed occurred."

The statement in the Le Devoir letter that "if we consider that a debate should take place, it should focus exclusively on the effects of cell phones on health" is basically an acknowledgement that there is at least some reason to be concerned about cell phones. However, while the immediate exposure from a cell phone is of much greater intensity than the exposure from smart meters, cell phone use is temporary.

Smart Meter Dangers: The Health Hazards of Wireless

Wireless smart meters typically produce atypical, relatively potent and very short pulsed RF/microwaves whose biological effects have never been fully tested. They emit these millisecond-long RF bursts on average 9,600 times a day with a maximum of 190,000 daily transmissions and a peak level emission two and a half times higher than the stated safety signal [Perlingieri's italics], as the California utility Pacific Gas & Electric recognized before that State's Public Utilities Commission. Thus people in proximity to a smart meter are at risk of significantly greater aggregate exposure than with a cell phone, not to mention the cumulative levels of RF/microwaves that people living near several meters are exposed to.

People are exposed to cell phone microwaves primarily in the head and neck, and only when they use their device. With smart meters, the entire body is exposed to the microwaves, which increases the risk of overexposure to many organs.

In addition to these erratic bursts of modulated microwaves coming from smart meters that are transferring usage data to electric, gas and water utilities, wireless and wired smart (powerlines communication) meters are also a major source of "dirty electricity" (electrical interference of high frequency voltage transients typically of kilohertz frequencies). Indeed, some scientists, such as American epidemiologist Sam Milham, believe that many of the health complaints about smart meters may also be caused by dirty electricity generated by the "switching" power supply activating all smart meters. Since the installation of filters to reduce dirty electricity circulating on house wiring has been found to relieve symptoms of EHS in some people, this method should be considered among the priorities aimed at reducing potential adverse impacts.

Rather be safe than sorry

The apparent adverse health effects noted with smart meter exposure are likely to be further exacerbated if smart appliances that use wireless communications become the norm and further increase unwarranted exposure.

To date, there have been few independent studies of the health effects of such sources of more continuous but lower intensity microwaves. However, we know after decades of studies of hazardous chemical substances, that chronic exposure to low concentrations of microwaves can cause equal or even greater harm than an acute exposure to high concentrations of the same microwaves.

This is why so many scientists and medical experts urgently recommend that measures following the Precautionary Principle be applied immediately — such as using wired meters — to reduce biologically inappropriate microwave exposure.

We are not advocating the abolition of RF technologies, only the use of common sense and the development and implementation of best practices in using these technologies in order to reduce exposure and risk of health hazards.

The Humanist Manifestos

One of the oft-quoted lines that comes from manifesto II is,
"No deity will save us; we must save ourselves."

My nomination for the twentieth century "Must Read" list is not a good book, but a revealingly bad one.

When I first began teaching political theory and my students asked about a mysterious document called the "Humanist Manifesto," I thought I had stumbled across the Southern evangelical version of the Roswell flying saucer myth.

That shows the folly of studying philosophy apart from how it plays out in popular culture.

My students had heard of the Manifesto because their pastors had read Francis Schaeffer, the Christian apologist who made evangelicals aware of the culture war.

Card carrying secular humanists do exist, I discovered, and there had been not one Humanist Manifesto but two; the first in 1933, the second on its fortieth anniversary in 1973. Finally reading them, I found an epitome of all the fallacies that as a child of mid century I had ever been taught.

Even more amazing were the lists of signatories, which seemed to include everyone who was anyone: for example,

John Dewey, Isaac Asimov, John Ciardi, Alan F. Guttmacher, Andrei Sakharov, Betty Friedan, and B. F. Skinner, the preeminent American philosopher of the first half of the century, a novelist and science populariser, a poet and Dante translator, the president of Planned Parenthood, the father of the Soviet hydrogen bomb, the inventor of an idiom for American feminism, and the psychologist who turned behaviourism into a system.

These flaccid committee products make a dull read, but a fascinating comparison: they show how an antireligious worldview became an unofficially established religion but had to stop calling itself a religion to finish the job.

Both Manifestos call for a form of democracy with certain rights, some kind of socialism, and the renunciation of force as a step toward world government. They propose that children and adults be educated in their ideologies, and through the thirties expression "social and mental hygiene" and the seventies expression "altering the course of human evolution and cultural development" they hint at much more. "Social hygiene" and "altering the course of human evolution," of course, mean eugenics; "mental hygiene" and "altering the course of human cultural development," indoctrination.

The Manifestos are also naturalistic: they think nature is all there is. Scorning "salvationism" as a distraction from the pressing problems of the present life, they disavow belief in God and call upon human beings to "save" themselves. While holding that traditional Western morality is defective, they are cagey about which commandments they would jettison, except the ones about sex, naturally.

The rest of the answer is found in Manifesto II, where we read that ethics is "situational."

This means, of course, that the rest of the commandments must also go.

Manifesto I blazons that humanism is a religion. Not only that, it demands the transformation of all older religions into its vessels. In the future, it boasts, "there will be no uniquely religious emotions and attitudes of the kind hitherto associated with belief in the supernatural""the "emotions" presumably including wonder, awe, and the sense of the holy, and the "attitudes" including praise, adoration, and humility. By the time of Manifesto II, however, there has been a change. Though it still makes claims about the ultimate meaning of things, it no longer calls its creed a religion. By this time the Supreme Court had begun to ask whether secular humanism is a religion within the meaning of the First Amendment, and Torcasco v. Watkins (1961) even seemed to have provided the answer: "Yes." Just how this would play out in subsequent cases was uncertain, but for any movement that seeks control of law and education, unequivocal recognition as a religion would spell disaster.

The government could no more teach or promote it than Methodism or Roman Catholicism.

The Manifestos both hold up the scientific method as the model for all belief.

This is remarkable, because although Manifesto I claims scientific grounding for humanism itself, Manifesto II claims merely that it cannot be falsified "which by its own standards would seem to make it meaningless. The third Manifesto, released just in time for the millennium, is even more defensive, although its triumphalist rhetoric blurs the picture.

Denying that secular humanism is a religion, Manifesto III pins the blame for this calumny on fundamentalists and right wingers, never mentioning that the first Manifesto said it was a religion.

Whining that secular humanists have been "unfairly accused of being unable to provide viable foundations for ethical responsibilities," it does not even try to explain how there can be any ethics in a universe in which natural forces and objects are all there is. Decrying irrationalism, it fails to recognize that it thereby condemns its own child.

Vanity, vanity. Some movements exhaust themselves only after generations of misspent power. At the moment when its march through the institutions seems complete, this one is already dead.

The next century will tell us how far a corpse can walk.

HUMANIST MANIFESTO - 1 AFFIRMATIONS

Today man's larger understanding of the universe, his scientific achievements, and deeper appreciation of brotherhood, have created a situation which requires a new statement of the means and purposes of religion. Such a vital, fearless, and frank religion capable of furnishing adequate social goals and personal satisfactions may appear to many people as a complete break with the past. While this age does owe a vast debt to the traditional religions, it is none the less obvious that any religion that can hope to be a synthesizing and dynamic force for today must be shaped for the needs of this age. To establish such a religion is a major necessity of the present. It is a responsibility which rests upon this generation.

We therefore affirm the following:

FIRST: Religious humanists regard the universe as self-existing and not created.

SECOND: Humanism believes that man is a part of nature and that he has emerged as a result of a continuous process.

THIRD: Holding an organic view of life, humanists find that the traditional dualism of mind and body must be rejected.

FOURTH: Humanism recognizes that man's religious culture and civilization, as clearly depicted by anthropology and history, are the product of a gradual development due to his interaction with his natural environment and with his social heritage. The individual born into a particular culture is largely moulded by culture.

FIFTH: Humanism asserts that the nature of the universe depicted by modern science makes unacceptable any supernatural or cosmic guarantees of human values. Obviously humanism does not deny the possibility of realities as yet undiscovered, but it does insist that the way to determine the existence and value of any and all realities is by means of intelligent inquiry and by the assessment of their relations to human needs. Religion must formulate its hopes and plans in the light of the scientific spirit and method.

SIXTH: We are convinced that the time has passed for theism, deism, modernism, and the several varieties of "new thought".

SEVENTH: Religion consists of those actions, purposes, and experiences which are humanly significant. Nothing human is alien to the religious. It includes labour, art, science, philosophy, love, friendship, recreation--all that is in its degree expressive of intelligently satisfying human living. The distinction between the sacred and the secular can no longer be maintained.

EIGHTH: Religious Humanism considers the complete realization of human personality to be the end of man's life and seeks its development and fulfilment in the here and now. This is the explanation of the humanist's social passion

NINTH: In the place of the old attitudes involved in worship and prayer the humanist finds his religious emotions expressed in a heightened sense of personal life and in a cooperative effort to promote social well-being.

TENTH: It follows that there will be no uniquely religious emotions and attitudes of the kind hitherto associated with belief in the supernatural.

ELEVENTH: Man will learn to face the crises of life in terms of his knowledge of their naturalness and probability. Reasonable and manly attitudes will be fostered by education and supported by custom. We assume that humanism will take the path of social and mental hygiene and discourage sentimental and unreal hopes and wishful thinking.

TWELFTH: Believing that religion must work increasingly for joy in living, religious humanists aim to foster the creative in man and to encourage achievements that add to the satisfactions of life.

THIRTEENTH: Religious humanism maintains that all associations and institutions exist for the fulfilment of human life. The intelligent evaluation, transformation, control, and direction of such associations and institutions with a view to the enhancement of human life is the purpose and program of humanism. Certainly religious institutions, their ritualistic forms, ecclesiastical methods, and communal activities must be reconstituted as rapidly as experience allows, in order to function effectively in the modern world.

FOURTEENTH: The humanists are firmly convinced that existing acquisitive and profit-motivated society has shown itself to be inadequate and that a radical change in methods, controls, and motives must be instituted. A socialized and cooperative economic order must be established to the end that the equitable distribution of the means of life be possible. The goal of humanism is a free and universal society in which people voluntarily and intelligently cooperate for the common good. Humanists demand a shared life in a shared world.

FIFTEENTH AND LAST: We assert that humanism will: (a) affirm life rather than deny it; (b) seek to elicit the possibilities of life, not flee from them; and (c) endeavour to establish the conditions of a satisfactory life for all, not merely for the few. By this positive morale and intention humanism will be guided, and from this perspective and alignment the techniques and efforts of humanism will flow.

So stand the theses of religious humanism.

Though we consider the religious forms and ideas of our fathers no longer adequate, the quest for the good life is still the central task for mankind. Man is at last becoming aware that he alone is responsible for the realization of the world of his dreams, that he has within himself the power for its achievement. He must set intelligence and will to the task.

One of the oft-quoted lines that comes from manifesto II is,

"No deity will save us; we must save ourselves."

10 Planks of Communism

Karl Marx describes in his Communist Manifesto, the ten steps necessary to destroy a free enterprise system and replace it with a system of omnipotent government power, so as to effect a communist socialist state.

America has been increasingly adopting more of Marx's ideals, sometimes more subtle than other times, yet sometimes rather openly. President Obama has openly suggested Marxist ideologies and has surrounded himself with numerous outspoken Marxists.

Obama's socialist backing goes back at least to 1996, when he received the endorsement of the Chicago branch of the Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) for an Illinois state senate seat.

[\[Cliff Kincaid, Accuracy in the Media\]](#)

Obama endorsed openly Socialist Senator Bernie Sanders in 2006.

Obama was later endorsed by the Communist Party USA in his run for President of the United States.

Following are the original ten planks within the Communist Manifesto written by Karl Marx in 1848, followed by a discussion of how America has adopted each of the planks.

1. Abolition of private property and the application of all rent to public purpose.

The courts have interpreted the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution (1868) to give the government far more "eminent domain" power than was originally intended. Under the rubric of "eminent domain" and various zoning regulations, land use regulations by the Bureau of Land Management property taxes, and "environmental" excuses, private property rights have become very diluted. As a result, private property in lands, vehicles, and other forms are seized almost every day in this country under the "forfeiture" provisions of the RICO statutes and the so-called War on Drugs. Private owners of property are required to get permission from government relative to the use of their property.

2. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.

The 16th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, 1913 (which some scholars maintain was never properly ratified), the Social Security Act of 1936, Joint House Resolution 192 of 1933, and various State income taxes established this major Marxist coup in the United States many decades ago. These progressive taxes have replaced tithing for many and continue to drain the lifeblood out of the American economy and greatly reduce the accumulation of desperately needed capital for future growth, business starts, job creation, and salary increases. The income tax requires of us that we serve two masters in violation of Matt. 6:24; requires of us that we rob God in violation of Mal. 3:8; requires of us that commit idolatry in violation of Ex. 20:3; requires of us to use unjust weights and measures in violation of Lev. 19:35-36; and requires us to sign contracts with foreign and alien gods in violation of Ex. 23:32-33.

3. Abolition of all rights of inheritance.

Another Marxist attack on private property rights is in the form of Federal & State estate taxes and other inheritance taxes, which have abolished or at least greatly diluted the right of private property owners to determine the disposition and distribution of their estates upon their death.

4. Confiscation of the property of all emigrants and rebels.

We call it government seizures, tax liens, "forfeiture" Public "law" 99-570 (1986); Executive order 11490, sections 1205, 2002 which gives private land to the Department of Urban Development; and the IRS confiscation of property without due process. The U.S. government is preparing now for a massive confiscation of property of patriots who speak out or write against the "government" (1997 Crime/Terrorist Bill).

5. Centralization of credit in the hands of the state, by means of a national bank with state capital and an exclusive monopoly.

The Federal Reserve System, created by the Federal Reserve Act of Congress in 1913, is indeed such a "national bank" and it politically manipulates interest rates and holds a monopoly on legal counterfeiting in the United States. All local banks are members of the Fed system, and are regulated by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) another privately-owned corporation.

The Federal Reserve Banks issue Fiat Paper Money and practice economically destructive fractional reserve bankingwhat Marx had in mind and completely fulfills this plank.

10 Planks of Communism

6. Centralization of the means of communication and transportation in the hands of the State.

In the U.S., communication and transportation are controlled and regulated by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) established by the Communications Act of 1934 and the Department of Transportation and the Interstate Commerce Commission (established by Congress in 1887), and the Federal Aviation Administration as well as Executive orders 11490, 10999 -- not to mention various state bureaucracies and regulations including State mandated driver's licenses.

Federal Highway Act of 1916 made federal funds available to States for highway construction), the Interstate Highway System, 1944 (funding began 1956); Interstate Commerce Commission given authority by Congress to regulate trucking and carriers on inland waterways, 1935-40. There is also the federal postal monopoly AMTRAK and CONRAIL -- outright socialist (government-owned) enterprises. Instead of free-market private enterprise in these important industries, these fields in America are semi-cartels through the government's regulatory-industrial complex.

7. Extension of factories and instruments of production owned by the State, the bringing into cultivation of waste lands, and the improvement of the soil generally in accordance with a common plan.

We call it corporate capacity, The Desert Entry Act and The Department of Agriculture. As well as the Department of Commerce and Labour, Department of Interior, the Environmental Protection Agency, Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Reclamation, Bureau of Mines, National Park Service, and the IRS control of business through corporate regulations. The Agriculture Adjustment Act of 1933 provided that farmers will receive government aid if and only if they relinquish control of farming activities.

8. Equal liability of all to labor. Establishment of Industrial armies, especially for agriculture.

We call it Social Security, a social welfare scheme that takes the place of strict liability (Ex. 21:28-36) and individual responsibility and violates the 10th Commandment by appealing to our lust and greed. Some may call this income redistribution, but the Bible calls it covetousness and theft in violation of Ex. 20:15-17. This and other social programs have enslaved us and future generations with a National debt that can never be repaid and inflation caused by the Federal Reserve has caused the need for a two "income" family. The Department of Labour and it's seen in Minimum Wage and slave labor like dealing with our Most Favoured Nation trade partner; i.e. Communist China. Women in the workplace since the 1920's, the 19th amendment of the U.S. Constitution, the Civil Rights Act of 1964, assorted Socialist Unions, affirmative action, the Federal Public Works Program and of course Executive order 11000. And I almost forgot...The Equal Rights Amendment means that women should do all work that men do including the military and since passage it would make women subject to the draft.

9. Combination of agriculture with manufacturing industries; gradual abolition of the distinction between town and country by a more equitable distribution of the population over the country.

We call it Agenda 21, the Planning Reorganization Act of 1949 , zoning (Title 17 1910-1990) and Super Corporate Farms, as well as Executive orders 11647, 11731 (ten regions) and Public "law" 89-136. Food processing companies, with the co-operation of the Farmers Home Administration foreclosures, are buying up farms and creating "conglomerates."

10. Free education for all children in government schools. Abolition of children's factory labour in its present form. Combination of education with industrial production.

Americans are being taxed to support what we call 'public' schools, but are actually "government force-tax-funded schools". Even private schools are government regulated. The purpose is to train the young to work for the communal debt system. We also call it the Department of Education, the NEA and Outcome Based "Education". The federal influence of education is evident in "head-start" programs, school lunch programs, "no child left behind", textbooks, and library books. Our children are being indoctrinated and inculcated with the government propaganda, like "majority rules", and "pay your fair share". WHERE are the words "fair share" in the Constitution, Bill of Rights or the Internal Revenue Code (Title 26)? NO WHERE is "fair share" even suggested! The philosophical concept of "fair share" comes from the Communist maxim,

"From each according to their ability, to each according to their need!
This concept is pure socialism.

Bacon's Secret Society

Bacon's secret society was set up in America before the middle of the 17th Century. Bacon himself had given up all hope of bringing his dream to fruition in his own country, and he concentrated his attention upon rooting it in the new world.

He made sure that the American colonists were thoroughly indoctrinated with the principles of religious tolerance, political democracy, and social equality.

Through carefully appointed representatives, the machinery of democracy was set up at least a hundred years before the period of the Revolutionary War.

A historian and linguist from South Africa recently wrote me a fascinating letter, in which he chronicled the major world empires of history, dating the time of their rise and fall. Here is what his calculations look like:

Assyria (859-612 B.C.): a 247-year reign.

Persia (538-330 B.C.): a 208-year reign.

Greece (331-100 B.C.): a 231-year reign.

The Roman Republic (260-27 B.C.): a 233-year reign.

The Roman Empire (27 B.C.-180 A.D.): a 207-year reign.

The Arab Empire (634-880 A.D.): a 246-year reign.

The Mameluke Empire (1250-1517 A.D.): a 267-year reign.

The Ottoman Empire (1320-1570 A.D.): a 250-year reign.

Spain (1500-1750 A.D.): a 250-year reign.

Romanov Russia (1682-1916 A.D.): a 234-year reign.

Great Britain (1700-1950 A.D.): a 250-year reign.

The USA (1790-2009 A.D.): 219 years and counting.

My honourable historian-friend calculates America's reign using its post-Revolutionary War years.

My honourable historian-friend calculates America's reign using its post-Revolutionary War years. He notes that America's reign is currently at 219 years. He further notes that the average duration of every world superpower listed above is a little over 238 years.

SQUARE the CIRCLE

Part 2

BRINGING HEAVEN
DOWN TO EARTH
(AS ABOVE—SO BELOW)

Man without God continually strives to bring Heaven down to earth (in so doing striving to become a God). Just one example of this is outlined in the next few pages. These are the symbols of "The Craft"; the compass representing the circle (Heaven) and the square representing the cross of matter (Earth). Using the Pyramid base as the square totalling 3022 feet around the perimeter, and the height of the pyramid 481 feet as the radius of the circle or 962 feet as the diameter X Pi also = 3022 feet. So that formula squares the circle, both having the same perimeter. The god makers believe that the Pyramid is a calendar in stone so gives a timeline for the "great work" to be completed. By starting with the command to build the temple in 962 bc and converting inches into years, the date of the beginning of "the quest" 5776 A L = 1776 (the beginning of America), and its' completion in 5776 Jewish Calender = 2016. These Occult Groups have a motto for the 33rd degree which is " Ordo Ab Chao " (bringing order out of chaos or "heaven down to earth"). They use the dialectic process to create confusion and chaos using Sophistry to counterfeit The Truth, and then proceed to bring their order out of the chaos under the cover of confusion (Their NEW WORLD ORDER). To create this Chaos they control and manipulate much of our day to day activities from behind the cover of secrecy and secret oaths and have done so for many years... (many good men and women join the outer circles of this society and are only allowed to ascend and enter the more corrupt secret inner circles by initiation. They are enticed into the more innocent outer circle by the search for meaning and wisdom, and to participate in the many worthwhile ways that they can help their fellow man. 2009 to 2016 is the period in which the "inner Circle" will strive to "Imminetize the Eschaton" (Counterfeit the Rapture, The Second Coming, The Alien Arrival), creating a Great Deception , A Grand Delusion, in a deluded attempt to setup "Their Heaven on Earth"... It is the building of a throne (a system of control over the whole earth, for the return of their counterfeit Messiah "Osiris"

SQUARING the CIRCLE—BRINGING HEAVEN DOWN TO EARTH

Height of Great Pyramid = 481'

Using the height as the Radius of the Circle makes a Circle of 962' Diameter.....

Circumference of a circle is = to Diameter x Pi

So then... $962 \times 3.14159265 = 3022$ ' (Circumference of circle)

GREAT PYRAMID = 3022' (Perimeter of Square Base of Pyramid)

So 3022 feet is base of pyramid & 3022 feet is circumference of circle (circle squared)

THE GREAT PYRAMID REPRESENTS A TIMELINE HIDDEN IN STONE

SO THE PERIMETER OF 3022' = 3022 BIBLICAL YEARS OF 360 DAYS

WHICH IN CALENDAR YEARS = 2978 CAL. YEARS OF 365.242 DAYS

Just as their counterfeit gods and religions will seem to bring them victory, they will be totally taken by surprise as they see the True God, Jesus Christ come in Glory for the final court scene of history.

THE NEW WORLD ORDER

So, to enable Peace and Security (Heaven on Earth), They must first give us Hell on Earth (Chaos); Then their Order can be birthed on the Ashes of the old order. America, as a Republic based on Individual Liberty and Conscience must be brought down and replaced by the New Order based on Collective total Dependence and Social Conscience.

Covet Means (Conspiracy) must be employed to bring down this old order. and using Fear Agendas as the driver of compliance, Faith and Individual Significance must be subverted and trance-formed.

If the Spirit of Antichrist is to Consume mankind, the Faith, Hope and Charity of the Christian World View must be snuffed out.

The world of Islam was targeted to create a "controlled enemy" for the Western Judeo-Christian World.

With cynical and evil intent Islam was manipulated to declare Global "Jihad" on the Western World.

A perfect enemy, with unconventional War Tactics, which cannot easily be identified, was created and set marching to the beat of Slogans and Jihad War Drums "Eliminate the Infidels."

The Christian World of Faith is their target and avowed enemy.....

They seek a return to the Dark Ages.

FOR THE ILLUMINISTS FINAL SETTING OF THE CAPSTONE IN PLACE HERALDS THEIR COUNTERFEIT MESSIAH — LUCIFER. LUCIFER'S LAST FUTILE ATTEMPT TO TAKE OVER THE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH... HIS N.W.O. WILL BRING GREAT TRIBULATION. OVER MANY YEARS AND THIS GREAT PLAN OF THE AGES IS BEING SOLD TO US AS THE NEW WORLD ORDER

END GAME

The placement of the missing capstone is the fulfilment of the great work and represents the enthronement of Antichrist.. Many groups, sects and secret societies have been working towards this great day, possibly not realizing that they were to be sacrificed in the end by the very brotherhoods they served , supported or opposed in a quest to bring about a new age of "peace and security". In an article presented previously "The Quest " was put forward as a plan for the ages, drawn from Bacon's "Atlantis" . To build America into a great world centre rich in the Sciences, Religion and Philosophy. To become the greatest centre for a world democracy. The Husbands of The Quest were the Elite "Brotherhood of the Quest", and the Council on Foreign Relations was to be the International Organizers for its Success. Over the past couple of decades, politicians and the elite have been Wearing special little lapel pins depicting a "Phoenix" rising out of it's ashes... It is becoming more obvious each day that the New World Order will rise out of the ashes of America.. The Sacrifice for the enthronement of Antichrist. The resultant Chaos will spread Fear and Martial Law around the World..Just as they cry "Peace and Safety" sudden Destruction comes upon them. About this time, just as the Evil are claiming Victory over Humanity, God will most probably take His People (the Light of the world) out leaving Evil to judge Evil and Sin to judge Sin in Total Darkness.

Messiah is Near.

This image (on this part 6) shows the approx 240 year cycle of the birth, rise and decline of the American civilization, and the Phases it travels through. It is interesting to look at historical events in the republic over these 240 years and compare the nature of these events to the cycle starting in Bondage to England; and progressing through periods of Faith, Courage leading to Abundance, gaining Liberty, then sliding into Apathy and Dependence, followed by Poverty and finally, again to come under the yoke of Bondage. On a more Global scale it is worth remembering that the New World was Explored, Discovered and Colonised in the Sixteenth to Eighteenth Century, and so most nations are positioned at similar moments in that greater 240 Year Cycle..On a Global scale Social, Political, Economic and Religious traditions are intuiting these ending phases, some clinging to the past others looking to embrace a New Order ?..

Perhaps the "Brotherhood of the Quest" has been using this 240 year timeline to measure and time the final consummation of their Utopian New Atlantis; their New World Order...

Part 7

Illuminati - A.L., as in Masonry, means Anno Lumina--year of light.

Craft Masonry's calendar commences with the creation of the world and uses the term Anno Lucius (A.L.) - "In the year of Light." To arrive at this date they add 4000 to the common time, as the Earth was believed in conventional theology to have began in 4000 BC.

This is also the date believed to mark the birth of Horus by Isis in Egypt.

For an example of this era use in Free Masonic books, see this link: <http://digital.lib.ecu.edu/historyfiction/viewer.aspx?id=cav>

According to the Illuminati, the great pyramid was built to commemorate and observe a supernova explosion that occurred in the year 4000 B. C. Dr. Anthony Hewish, 1974 Nobel Prize winner in physics, discovered a rhythmic series of radio pulses which he proved were emissions from a star that had exploded around 4000 B.C.

George Michanowsky wrote in The Once and Future Star that "The ancient Sumerian cuneiform...described a giant star exploding within a triangle formed by...Zeta Puppis, Gamma Velorum, and Lambda Velorum...located in the southern sky....[An] accurate star catalogue now stated that the blazing star that had exploded within the triangle would again be seen by man in 6000 years."

<http://watcher.boardzero.com/the-watcher-forum-f3/recent-triangle-formations-of-ufos-t136.html>

Height of the Great Pyramid (calculated with its capstone, now missing) 5,776 inches.

U.S. Declaration of Independence, 5776 A.L (Anno Lumina--year of light)

The Jewish calendar year 5776 is 2016 in the Gregorian calendar.

The Scottish Rite date the same as Craft Masons, except for the use of the Jewish Chronology. Anno Mundi (A.M.), which means "In the year of the World" is their calendar terminology and adds 3760 to the common time. $2016 + 3760 = 5776$

This means that the Illumined have understood that the year 1776 in the Craft Mason calendar A.L. 5776, is a code for both the Scottish Rite and Jewish calendar year of the future, 5776, or 2016 in the Gregorian calendar.

From 2016 AD to the Dedication of the first Temple of Jerusalem in 961-962 BC is 3,022 biblical "360 day" years. The Great pyramid is 3,022 feet at its perimeter and 5776 inches or 481 feet tall, half 962.

This is the ratio of PI.

The Statue of Liberty in New York holds tablets with the singular date, "July IV 1776" or in the "year of light" 5776 A.L.

It stands exactly 5706 miles from the site of the Temple of Jerusalem. 5706 in the Jewish calendar and the Craft Masonic calendar is the year 1948, the year of Israel's "resurrection" Ezekiel 37.

Does it make a little sense then, that the 1,260 day count down to 12 / 21 / 2012 begins in the week of July 4th 2009, seven years before 2016?...

That the Roswell incident occurred on the evening before the 4th of July on the latitude of 33 degrees? That this latitude multiplied by the value of a circle, "PI, 3.1415..." equals the site's longitude? Or that PI unlocks the time-lines of both the Great Pyramid and the Temple of Jerusalem so that they both indicate a terminus year of 2016? ...That 2012 is the number of minutes in 33 degrees, 33 minutes? Or that the square root of 33.33 is 5.773... (the fractal of the Jewish year 5773, 2012 AD)?

At the moment of this writing, there are 3,022 hours remaining (the same number as the great pyramid base perimeter in feet) until the 1,260 day countdown to December 21st 2012 begins in July 7/11/2009.

The revealing BBC documentary The Power of Nightmares digs deep into the roots of the war on terror, only to find that much of the widespread fear in the post - 9/11 world has been fabricated by those in power for their own interests. The intrepid BBC team presents highly revealing interviews with top officials and experts in combating terrorism who raise serious questions about who is behind all of the fear-mongering. These experts and riveting footage also show how the media have been manipulated to support secret war and power agendas. This eye-opening documentary shows that, especially after 9/11, fear has been used widely in the media to manipulate the public into giving up civil liberties and turning over power to elite groups with their own hidden agendas.

The Power of Nightmares clearly demonstrates that the nightmare vision of a powerful, united terrorist organization waiting to strike our societies is largely an illusion. Wherever the BBC team looked for al-Qaeda, from the mountains of Afghanistan to the sleeper cells in America, they found that we are chasing a phantom enemy.

For all citizens who care about the future of our world, this is a must-watch DVD.

20TH Century : COLLECTIVIZATION ; ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

Cynical indoctrination using Psychology, Psychiatry and Mass Mind Manipulation Techniques, Trance-Forming the culture of Individual Consciousness using Individual Conscience, to The Collective Unconscious using Social Conscience Sciences
(Political Correctness and Anti-Discriminative thought laws control the processes)
{ THE BORG MIND ASSIMILATION AGENDA }

The "Quest" has been guardian of the "Plan" of a Bacon's utopian "New Atlantis" (World) model for over 240 years now, and has found it's home in America, as the planned Flagship of the new Nations and Colonies. (managed by The Council on Foreign Relations)

Espousing Individual Sovereignty, Freedom, and Unalienable Rights "The Republic" inspired a society built on growth of the Individual and became the world's greatest growth story.
 (as it was designed to do from it's inception.)

THE PLAN : (First Individualize, then Democratize, then Collectivise , Then Socialize, Then Terrorize, Then Globalize.)

Republicanism is the guiding political philosophy of the United States. It has been a major part of American civic thought since its founding.^[1] It stresses liberty and "unalienable" rights as central values, makes the people as a whole sovereign, rejects aristocracy and inherited political power, expects citizens to be independent in their performance of civic duties, and vilifies corruption.^[2] American republicanism was founded and first practiced by the Founding Fathers in the 18th century. For them, according to one team of historians, "republicanism represented more than a particular form of government. It was a way of life, a core ideology, an uncompromising commitment to liberty, and a total rejection of aristocracy."^[3]

Republicanism was based on Ancient Greco-Roman, Renaissance, and English models and ideas.^[4] It formed the basis for the American Revolution and the consequential Declaration of Independence (1776) and the Constitution (1787), as well as the Gettysburg Address (1863).^[5]

Republicanism is distinguished from democracy , as it asserts that people have unalienable rights that cannot be voted away by a majority of voters.

The Republic was vehemently opposed to Democratic mob rule.

In this endeavour an Order of Faith was to be built up, and then destroyed by a new Chaos of Fear.

The Republic created a formidable edifice of freedom confronting the established order of slavery and serfdom, built up over the centuries by various Dictators, Monarchs and Pirates.

(However, behind the scenes controls were set in place to ensure a successful End Game .)
 It was designed to flourish and become a shining light of faith in the worth of the individual, free from the impositions of Aristocracies and Corruption.

Then it was to be gradually destroyed from within by the cancers of International Finance, Fiat Currencies, the Divisive Democracy and Sophistry.

Democracy is the most corruptible form of government and the most divisive.

It is the key weapon of the Oligarchs, used to divide and conquer Sovereign Peoples, degenerating their societies into the rule of "the Mob" and social chaos.

The Individual Conscience (a perfect Chaos Control at the individual level) , is blindsided and morality is subverted by libertarians and replaced by social ethics , managed by Social Conscience.

Mind manipulation through Social Sciences and Media can then generate Social Controls.

This allows Fear to replace Faith and generate, in the long run, Chaos through terror as we see in our world today. Fear & Chaos are the most powerful political control devices for Oligarchs.

I wonder what "ORDER" waits in the wings to "REPLACE" this present "CHAOS"?

The following page article shows an example of how the elite strive to use Chaos to bring about their own (new world) order.

The self we live by: Narrative identity in a postmodern world.

ABSTRACT

Applies a vocabulary that makes the self visible as a project of everyday life. This book begins with the social self as envisioned early in the 20th century. Then the authors trace its movement from its ordinary social conditioning to its current existential dilemmas and crumbling experiential moorings.

Part I revisits, then revises, this story of the social self in detail, drawing upon both classic and contemporary commentaries to bolster the account.

Part II presents the everyday technology of self construction, the complex social processes by which subjectivity is produced. The self is featured as an artifact of interpretive practice, as something under construction at every turn of social interaction.

As a result, the contemporary self is shown to be more socially elaborate and institutionally mediated than it was originally conceptualized to be.

As The Elite Fences Itself In, Kissinger Announces Order Out Of Chaos

Jurriaan Maessen - Infowars.com - May 21, 2012

In a recent statement Henry Kissinger admitted that social upheaval and mass civil unrest are to be used as a means of merging the US into an "international system".

"The United States has to be part of an international system that we create domestically", he told The Harvard Crimson in the beginning of this month. When asked what the most important problems are facing American society today,

Kissinger answered:

"Internationally, the problem is that there are upheavals going on in every part of the world, but these upheavals don't follow the same basic causes, and so the United States has to be part of an international system that we create domestically."

What the old man is saying here ties neatly into statements he made in the past concerning the concept of seizing crises and upheavals, the causes of which may differ from nation to nation, in order to bring about an international order- thereby following the elite's golden rule that order is best brought about by chaos.

Furthermore, he provides us with a glimpse of the underlying intent he and his fellow-Bilderbergers have in mind, stating in so many words that civil unrest- be it economically, politically or socially motivated- must be seized upon in order to merge nations into the desired "international system."

In a December 2008 Prisonplanet.com article it was reported that Kissinger, in an interview with the darling of Bilderberg Charlie Rose, "cited the chaos being wrought across the globe by the financial crisis and the spread of terrorism as an opportunity to bolster a new global order.", Steve Watson wrote.

"I think that when the new administration assesses the position in which it finds itself it will see a huge crisis and terrible problems, but I can see that it could see a glimmer in which it could construct an international system out of it.", Kissinger told Rose.

All this talk of crises and upheavals as just another country-specific means to a centralized global end could specifically point to a plan. While at the surface the elite might scurry to salvage the ailing euro as currency-cohesion crumbles, it may have developed a darker plan B that in case the euro may turn out to be beyond repair, the solution of a world currency will be provided. Seize the euro-crisis, in other words, to introduce a world currency.

This follows the course of classic Hegelian dialectic, namely the problem (whether real or feigned) provokes the reaction which in turn allows the elite to provide the solution on a silver plate. It just now occurred to me that Kissinger's words are ominously reminiscent of those written down by University of Chicago's Alexander Wendt, who in 2003 in his treatise titled "Why a World State is Inevitable: teleology and the logic of anarchy" stated:

"Nationalist struggles for recognition are by no means over, and more new states - "more anarchy"- may yet be created. But while further fragmentation is in one sense a step back, it is also a precondition for moving forward, since it is only when difference is recognized that a larger identity can be stable. (...)

Far from suppressing nationalism, a world state will only be possible if it embraces it."

These words shed some sharp light on the words uttered by Kissinger and his fellow supranationalists, in essence revealing they are very much aware of the fact that the mere proposition of a world state will not make it so- may even backfire on them- and that now a detour should be pursued via nationalism and domestic unrest to get the job done- in other words not so much crushing protests for the sake of crushing them, but rather to use these upheavals for their own transnational designs.

At the same time, the elite members who gather at important meetings are fencing themselves in out of fear of chaos erupting outside. Just a few days ago, the European Central Bank issued a press-release stating that in order to protect their staff and visitors from protesters it has:

"implemented measures (...), taking into account the protection granted to the ECB's premises and operations by the Headquarters Agreement between the ECB and the Federal Republic of Germany."

This makes clear the banking elites of the world are worried their safety may well be impaired as a result of the protests planned against their meetings. The same caution will of course apply to the upcoming Bilderberg conference in Chantilly Virginia. We can expect local police and armed guards to protect the elite players inside, who in return scheme all of mankind into another crisis.

So, as the 17th & 18th centuries gave us the “seeds” of the New “Order” of the ages, we can now see “a New World Coming into View” .

The 20th century brings us the “Fruits” of this “New Atlantis” as we move along the timeline and progressions of this Utopian “Brave New World”. We are now seeing the results of the manipulation of our “New Man’s” Mind. Through applications of Social Sciences, Psychology, Psychiatry a New World View is being manufactured.

From Freudian Personal Psychology dealing with Individual Consciousness and Personal Guilt, to Yung’s Transpersonal Psychology and dealing with The Collective Unconscious and Social Guilt, (Political Correctness), great successes have been achieved in the Collectivizing of the Individual.

Edward Bernays, a relative of Freud perfected the arts of Mass Corporate and Political Marketing, creating a “Pro-Sumer”, focussing The Individual on Productive-Consumerism as a means of producing things and of accumulating things.

Embracing second hand imagination identifies Self through Things and Propagandized Ideas (Mass Mind Control)

So was manufactured the “Century of Self” (The Twentieth Century)

The Collective is the perfect Matrix through which to Terrify and control through fear.

It induces Individuals to surrender their Authentic “Significance” in exchange for “Peace & Security”.

The Politics of Fear easily moves the herd consciousness to desperately strive for Security at the cost of their Freedom.

With these controls in place the News, portrayed by a compromised media, focuses attention on “Rich Men’s Tricks” creating never ending excuses for further Wars on Terror.

These create Junkyards of discarded and broken humanity. (Collateral Damage)

These Elites, that fantasize about Utopian Brave New Worlds; afraid of us and fearing the worst for themselves and their kind, start burrowing into holes in the earth to survive and reach out to the Stars to find safe havens Colonizing the Planets.

They Crave Immortality and Fear Death , because they Know that when they come to the final Departure, they are “all dressed up with nowhere to go”.

The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil has encompassed them in a logic trap, and their pride stops them from moving into the realm of perception that is non-meritorious and allows Grace, Love and Peaceful Understanding to heal their en-trapped souls.

They stand atop their towers of knowledge, wearing their pride like a badge of honour, and trade that knowledge for Power.

(Power corrupts & Absolute power tends to corrupt absolutely).

Knowledge is the currency of power in this gravity well, and this power corrupts when divorced from understanding.

They refuse to “Stand Under the Weight” of what they know, and so, are oblivious to compassion, understanding and forgiveness, masked by a cold and cruel narcissism.....

We should all Pray for them ? — For “ They know not what they do ”

A little further on, we can look at the “Creation of the Lie”
To Empower Global Terror.

The Masonic Brotherhood/Intelligence Agencies Compartmentalised Power Structure

The Freemasonic secret-society/Intelligence Agencies network is intrinsically interwoven into ALL levels of society's structure – social services and child care, police, military, politics, legal system, mass media, banking, business, medical and pharmaceutical industry, alternative health care, education, religion, food multinationals, illegal drug running and distribution and organised crime. The hierarchy of this compartmentalised power structure are the SECRET SERVICES, the major "think tanks" and manipulators of our society.

These are the people who run our society and our lives!

EMPOWERING THE TERROR

Part 1

"Countless people will hate the New World Order and will die protesting against it."
—H.G. Wells, The New World Order (1939)

This answers many of the questions I have concerning the seeming "contradictions" of the New World Order. Now I see we are currently at the early stage of steps 3 and 4 of the NWO Bilderberg Plan as outlined below.

Order Out of Attacking the New World Order

Why did Bilderberg Elitest Zoellick admit the NWO plan to end U.S. sovereignty and Impose Global Governance

Why does Paul Voelkler, World Bank President warn us that the Economic Crisis may be worse than the Great Depression? here again...

Some of us ask why does the NWO do things like blasting the Fed? Merkel Blasts the Fed

- 1 .The New World Order wants the current world-system destroyed to set up their intended new system (their Huxleyan and/or Orwellian world government),
2. The New World Order wants the current system destroyed through massive suffering worldwide and through ultra-violent social transformation,
3. 1 and 2 will be done by the New World Order partially revealing itself (but it will only reveal the lower levels of itself and/or the parts of itself that it needs to transform and/or destroy: some of the mega-corporations, the police forces, national government systems, national militaries of the world, and most of all, select commercial banks and reserve banks, etc. For example, see this recent story of a major world leader "surprisingly" coming out and "agreeing" with the people that the central banks of the world are bad. This amazing story makes my recent "Infowars story, "End the Fed' Protests are the Secret Road to World Government", far more credible, and far less speculative than I think many originally presumed),
4. The citizens will respond by attacking and destroying these lower aspects of the New World Order system which they will be shown on TV, and which will be erroneously portrayed as being the base-cause of their suffering (but which are actually just the lower- and puppet-levels of the real cause of suffering: the New World Order),

EMPOWERING THE TERROR

Part 2

"Countless people will hate the New World Order and will die protesting against it."—H.G. Wells, The New World Order (1939)

The New World Order wants to make its move via a violent revolution (order out of attacking the New World Order), and they have to drive the people into panic and helplessness so as to get unproductive, un-thought-out, reactionary, horrific violence to commence. How does the New World Order drive the citizen mobs of the world to this point? Answer: starve them, kill their economy, destroy their known way of life, shatter their security, confuse them and make them totally ignorant, and slowly start to show the brutality of the Secret Government controllers. And what is the overall goal of this: to destroy the current way-of-things in order to bring about a new way of things (a New World Order). The secret global government has control over every aspect of our lives (since we, as Americans, have let that happen), so it only must be the case that they are orchestrating everything we are seeing going on now if it shows up in the mass corporate media (excluding the still-far-too-small pockets of informed, productive, genuine resistance).

Following the Bilderberg meeting, there were several interesting announcements made by key participants, specifically in regards to reorganizing the Federal Reserve. On May 21, it was reported that US Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner "is believed to be leaning heavily towards giving the Federal Reserve a central role in future regulation," and "it is understood that the Fed would take on some of the work currently undertaken by the US Securities and Exchange Commission." [11]

On Wednesday, May 20, Geithner spoke before the Senate Banking Committee, at which he stated that, "there are important indications that our financial system is starting to heal." In regards to regulating the financial system, Geithner stated that, "we must ensure that international rules for financial regulation are consistent with the high standards we will be implementing in the United States." [12]

US Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner, former President of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York Bloomberg reported that, "The Obama administration may call for stripping the Securities and Exchange Commission of some of its powers under a regulatory reorganization," and that, "The proposal, still being drafted, is likely to give the Federal Reserve more authority to supervise financial firms deemed too big to fail. The Fed may inherit some SEC functions, with others going to other agencies." Interestingly, "SEC Chairman Mary Schapiro's agency has been mostly absent from negotiations within the administration on the regulatory overhaul, and she has expressed frustration about not being consulted."

ISIS, as in the ancient Egyptian cult of the goddess of fertility and magic.

The media picture being presented adds up less and less.

Details leaking out suggest that ISIS and the major military 'surge' in Iraq - and less so in neighbouring Syria - is being shaped and controlled out of Langley, Virginia, and other CIA and Pentagon outposts as the next stage in spreading chaos in the world's second-largest oil state, Iraq, as well as weakening the recent Syrian stabilization efforts.

Key members of ISIS it now emerges were trained by US CIA and Special Forces command at a secret camp in Jordan in 2012, according to informed Jordanian officials.

The US, Turkish and Jordanian intelligence were running a training base for the Syrian rebels in the Jordanian town of Safawi in the country's northern desert region, conveniently near the borders to both Syria and Iraq. Saudi Arabia and Qatar, the two Gulf monarchies most involved in funding the war against Syria's Assad, financed the Jordan ISIS training. Former US State Department official Andrew Doran wrote in the conservative National Review magazine that some ISIS warriors also hold US passports. Now, of course that doesn't demonstrate and support by the Obama Administration.

Hmm.....?

CONTROLLED OPPOSITION.

Part 1

The power of nightmares has been a very effective tool for World leaders. Setting up controlled opposition has given them vital management techniques in creating and managing the chaos that their plan requires. They need to keep the Phantom Bogey Man and their own constituents in a dynamic and constant state of aggression and fear. This feeds the power to ensure the ongoing progression of their planned New Order of the Ages.

More simply put, "Ordo ab Chao" in action is a dialectal process employed by the planners to first Create the Problem, secondly to bring about a Targeted Reaction, so that their desired Prepared Solution can be mandated.

The solution is usually presented as bringing "Peace and Collective Security" to the engineered crisis, for which, in fear, the masses cry out ."We will give you Public Safety and Social Security, but you must give up your Freedom and Individual Significance. We will look after you, we will become your loving Big Brother.

Without the success of this Hegelian tactic the Globalists would never be able to bring about the changes they need to fulfil their Utopian dream of a New Atlantis.

Conventional wars, to date, have historically been started and both sides financed and armed by the Oligarchs. This ensures that both sides are managed in Controlled Opposition. Winners and Losers are decided well before the conflict starts, and unimaginable profits are made by the " backers of both sides."

The Greeks came up with a concept call Democracy. They tried it out and within six months the whole political process had descended into Anarchy and Chaos.

This form of Government is at its heart, Divisive and is actually a form of Controlled Opposition practised by those who would give us the illusion of choice and demand our compliance under threat of "DEMOCIDE" (entangling us in wars of conflict).

We are told that (Empire) America has initiated its own Reign of Terror on all Islamic Countries, to bring "Democracy" to these "rogue" Nation States. This first requires Democide.

So Independent Nation states, which cannot be manipulated and managed through debt to The Global Reserve Banking System, must be brought to heel by invasion and plundered of their oil and gold reserves of these states, and "Democratized" so that Controlled Opposition can be set up and "managed".

Another helpful by-product of these adventures is destruction of the culture and nationhood through Democide on a massive scale.. (Collateral damage being a top priority)
Genocide is the bastard child of Democide.

Our dreams have been turned into nightmares and our fears have been generated by the cynical creations of Phantom Enemies. Recent history has provided many examples of false flag Black Operations of various world Intelligence Organization, Funded by Collusive Power Cliques.

By stealth they have managed to institute cruel mind games called the "Global War on Terror". This gives us an indefinable enemy which lives in the shadows, and an unholy Global conflict that will last indefinitely. (Cont over)

It allows for indiscriminate Democide (Genocide) with Total Plausible Deniability and total absence of Accountability.

Democide is death by Government, and this killing machine run by narcissist sociopaths and psychopaths has accounted for over 350 million souls taken out in the 20th century. So their new agenda of terror by stealth "makes Government the Real Terrorists"

For many years the bogey man for the intelligence community was Russia and communism

During those 50 years or so, with this as the sanitized excuse they crafted secretive and Illegal modus operandi allowing stealth to cover their nefarious plans and operations.

They flew under the radar , so to speak wearing the "stealth" veneer.

They perfected the art of Subterfuge, setting many up to become the "blame" patsies for their clandestine crimes against their constitution and the American people. In the Name of "National Security",

(There's that "security" word again) they plied their craft aimed at dispossessing America of its beloved Republic, and building the foundations of The New American Century....

The New American Empire....The New Atlantis.

In the early part of the 21st century the Security Services had to find a new enemy, and if this enemy was to be used as their excuse for Empire building — it had to be a Global Enemy.

Think Tanks in the '60s had come out in the Iron Mountain report, with 3 or 4 contenders for Global Enemies, ready made for this time of the grab for world power: 1...Environmental threat....2. Economic Threat....3 Terrorism Threat.

Between Rockefeller, the U.N, and the Technology these threats have been activated, and can be seen clearly in our world today affecting all of us.

After invasions of the Middle East and many other countries over the years our intelligence organizations have employed a strategy of Controlled Opposition.

They first invaded Afghanistan to "save it" from the Russian Armies.

(The real purpose was the opium and oil fields takeover.)

To control the people, they created and trained the "Taliban", A network of Feudal Tribal leaders. Finally ended up going Rogue, and the Intelligence communities created an enemy for their new enemy. AL Qaeda was formed (from a CIA data base), and trained to keep order in the terrorist war zone and they eventually went rogue, almost as if meant to.. And each transition created more feared monsters.

We now have ISIS... Their headquarters are in Washington DC and it turns out that they are part of SIS (Special Intelligence Service), and most black ops such as ISIS are CONTRACTED OUT TO Private contractors.

If That is not Controlled Opposition I don't know what is !

We Now Have ISIS, aka SIS, manufactured, trained and armed by the CIA, roaming the globe to create terror worldwide.

This furthers excuses for America's Global Empire Building Army to engage in further invasions, creating phantom enemies to engage in further wars, in pursuit of Global Domination for their Elite Masters.

Part 3

Finally it was on the 10th of June 2014, that the world finally woke up to the threat of ISIS, after the fall of Mosul. The ISIS were out there boasting about their tanks, anti-aircraft guns, anti-tank missiles, heavy ammunition, Humvees, helicopters – all of which they captured from the Iraqi army, which did not even put up a fight. The Iraqi army that the US had been training at great cost, collapsed along sectarian lines.

Strangely even though the ISIS were parading openly with all their captured American weaponry, the US chose not to attack, which is against standard US Military doctrine, that calls for captured weapons to be destroyed so that they do not fall into the hands of the enemy. At that very time the US was conducting drone strikes in Pakistan, but chose not to attack ISIS in Iraq. So is Obama a weak President, or even a no-war peace loving man, who only goes to war as the last option?

That is certainly not the case.

Obama's strategy has been to wage war by proxy, whereby they foment civil wars & strife, whilst deploying aerial attacks & drones, even as myriad proxies groups fight the land war.

This is evident across Libya, Somalia, Iraq, Yemen, Lebanon & myriad other theatres of war. Then another question we are frequently asked- "why after creating the ISIS, as you say, is the US bombing its own creation? it's only a repeat of recent history. The US enthroned Saddam in 1963, used him against Iran and then destroyed him and similarly with the Al Qaeda & the Taliban in Afghanistan. Yet we tend to forget . . . unfortunately.

US Senator Lindsey Graham warns of a coming 9/11 attack. Fear Mongering to justify the wars in the Middle-East is part of the Neoconservative-Zionist strategy.

The strategy is essentially to:

Build up a dictator or an extremist group/s to be used to wage proxy wars against opponents. During this phase, crimes committed by proxies are swept under the carpet – Problem.

Then after the 'nasty bad guys' have outlived their usefulness & served their purpose, then it's time to pull the plug & demonise them for all their barbarism. This works well when the public has no clue as to where these 'nasty bad guys' come from the first place – Reaction.

Finally when the public finally begs the government to do something, a solution is proposed. This would usually mean military intervention couched in a humanitarian framework. This also leads to the reduction of freedoms in our nations & societies – Solution.

Thus the ISIS has proved invaluable to the US-Nato strategic game plan as there now exists a popular support back home to neutralize the ISIS threat that supposedly poses a threat to America. Therefore ISIS has provided a perfect alibi for the US-Nato forces to return back to the region as part of its re-colonization programme.

ISIS has also proved very useful in the Syrian theatre as today the ISIS does control up to 30% of territory and provides the perfect pretext for the US to invade Syria. The US-Nato allies could possibly enforce a no-fly zone in the ISIS held areas, thus preventing any role for the sovereign state & the Syrian Arab Army. As the ISIS retreats in the face of US bombing, that very territory would be handed over to the FSA & Jabhat al Nusra-Qaeda militants & mercenaries, surely with many ISIS mercenaries morphing into moderate rebels. Thus effectively partitioning Syria!

The Syrian government has stated that they will not bear the violation of their sovereignty & Russia too has warned the US on this count.

Entrap Russia: It was also in this very period that the Russian-US-Nato crisis over Ukraine began to emerge as a serious situation that could lead to a regional or a global war.

The steps to counter ISIS are as follows:— Work towards national political solutions, power sharing, constitutional democratic reforms, free & fair elections - to avoid civil wars, through regional & international mediation, whilst limiting the role of the US-EU & NATO institutions & military forces.

- Stop the physical routes from across the Turkish, Jordan & Lebanon into Syria.
- Shut down all safe-havens & camps active in Jordan, Qatar, Turkey & all other destinations.
- Shut down all sources of funding from Saudi, Qatar, Kuwait, Bahrain, Turkey & supply of weapons from US, Britain, France & other Western sources.

Part 4

- Support the Governments battling this terror plague with satellite & intelligence reports so that the Army can perform better.
- Stop media propaganda & hate speech to stem the tide of publicity, hatred & fear.
- Identify & prosecute all those governments & private sources that are funding & arming terrorists so that a precedent is set.
- Thus the regional & the international situation is indeed fraught with danger, even as the US-Nato forces continue with their belligerence & war mongering.
- There is a need for an international alliance to counter the political, financial & military hegemony of the Western Imperial-Zionist axis.
- There is also a dire need for the popular resistance forces to counter the religious fanaticism that is being foisted within our societies by anti-democratic religious regressive obscurantist extremists who only weaken & divide our common struggles.
- These are the very elements that are indoctrinated to fight the proxy wars.

There is thus a dire need for spiritual democracies to emerge as a counter to illiberal & regressive religious fanatics – much in the spirit of liberation theology.

Where religion is redeemed from fanatics & texts interpreted with an all encompassing vision of love, compassion, universalism, mutual-respect & equality - thus liberating humanity from the religion & culture of fear, hatred and violence.

Already forces & alliances such as the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO), the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM), and the BRICS are emerging as viable challenges in the near future, centred on Russia, China, India, Brazil & South Africa. The South American Bolivarian nations continue to successfully resist & build democratic socialist models, empowering their citizens thus posing a challenge to the neo-liberal capitalist framework.

This even as the valiant Palestinian resistance continues to stand at the frontlines of the struggle for human emancipation & liberty, thus inspiring generations across the world.

Finally it is for the people of the world to continue to march against the wars & terror, to march for the unity of the oppressed people & nations – and to march for the freedom, dignity & self-respect of all human beings.

The leader of the ISIS was released from U.S. custody in Iraq by President Obama during his Iraqi troop draw down last year.

The CIA has organized this ISIS terror group. Then they open America's southern borders for man power, weapons and supplies can be moved into America with no resistance. Then Obama releases the GITMO 5 to join their Islamic brothers and bring Jihad to Ameica.

"The lone wolf method is a strategy employed by al Qaeda and its allies so that Western Governments are unable to detect all the terror attempts. When those young men and women go to internet, they find all the ideological material and guidelines which indoctrinate them and prep them as individual lone wolves. Even if these individual Jihadis aren't members of al Qaeda and or other Jihadist organizations they nevertheless act on behalf of the same goals and are indoctrinated by the same ideology.

The strategic desire of al Qaeda is to have a Jihadi force working on the US homeland and striking from within. Hence those lone wolves in fact, even though not members of the organizational structure or with minimal email contact with overseas Jihadists are part of the global web. They act alone but they are connected."

It is important for people to realize (those who are unaware) that most black ops such as ISIS are now done by private contractors. The ISIS name change to "Special Intelligence Service" SAYS IT ALL, but wait, there is MORE! I caught their web site in the transitional phase, where it is a mix of ISIS and the new name SIS. Why the name change if they had nothing to hide? Nailed this at the PERFECT time!

To save face, intelligence front ISIS changed the corporate name to SIS, Special Intelligence Service. This is actually worse for them, especially considering the fact that their domain still says ISIS, and they missed a few things on this front page that I will happily point out HERE(below) we have the original domain name still in place, identifying this outfit as the real ISIS.

The Harbinger - The author says that The Harbinger is a fictional story which is nevertheless concerned with a real-life connection: a prophecy about ancient Israel that was eventually fulfilled in the eighth century BC when Israel was destroyed, and certain events and facts related to the 9/11 terror attacks against the U.S. in 2001. Cahn calls these events and facts "harbingers," and argues that they show a connection between ancient Israel's destruction and a possible coming destruction of present-day America. He also says that ancient Israel received a warning before being destroyed, and that the 9/11 harbingers form a similar warning from God to America.

The Mystery of the Shemitah - Cahn has also written a non-fiction book related to The Harbinger on the Shemitah topic, called The Mystery of the Shemitah, which was published in September 2014 by Frontline. In this book, Cahn makes a case that understanding the seven-year pattern is essential for understanding the prophecies of the Bible and links the Great Depression and other American economic collapses to the Shemitah, as well as the country's rise, and possible eventual fall, as prophesied in The Harbinger.

[Critical response The American television personality and radio host

Glenn Beck called it "an incredible story", saying that the author's use of novel format was at present the only way to have a serious conversation about God for modern Americans.

*We remember
We rebuild
We come back stronger!*

'The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.'" (Isaiah 9:8-10 KJV)

As the rest of this chapter is read, it becomes apparent that this is clearly a passage of JUDGMENT!

God's Judgment on America Unveiled?

Publisher's Note

Several weeks ago a friend of mine sent me an email with a link to a short film and said that "I HAD TO WATCH THIS FILM." So, out of curiosity, I clicked on the link <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JW6roFN7NAE> and watched it. The film blew me away. The first thing I did was to start checking the facts presented in the film. I could find no errors. The next thing I did was to contact the film maker, Pastor Carl Gallups. As a result, Pastor Gallups graciously agreed to send me his script notes and several still shots from the film and gave me permission to print them. The following is the actual narrative from his film entitled Astounding Revelation – God's Judgment on America – Revealed! I highly recommend that everyone view this film. The link once again is <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JW6roFN7NAE>.

May God have mercy on us and may the people of America wake-up, repent and turn back to God!!!

Astounding Revelation – God's Judgment on America – Revealed!

By Pastor Carl Gallups

God brought His first terrible judgment on His newly formed nation of Israel - through the Assyrians - now known as modern day Arab people - now overwhelmingly Muslim. He brought His judgment on the Northern Kingdom of Israel with an incursion into the land. The Assyrians caused astounding devastation upon Israel but were not able to topple it. Not until Israel responded in pride and arrogance and refused to turn back to God with its heart. Some time later God allowed the Assyrians, Arab people, to overrun - devastate and carry off into captivity the people of Israel. The 10 Tribes of the North were gone and lost.

In Isaiah 9 we hear God's strange words of judgment upon Israel... “The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart, ‘The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.’” (Isaiah 9:8-10 KJV)

As the rest of this chapter is read, it becomes apparent that this is clearly a passage of JUDGMENT!

On September 11, 2001 - America suffered its worst incursion onto its mainland by an enemy. They were Arabs - Muslim terrorists. They did not succeed in toppling the nation...but they set it on its heels...what happened next and what is still happening - with most of America not even knowing or caring - is nothing short of astounding and ominous!

The 8 harbingers of judgment pronounced on Israel - are identically pronounced on the U.S.A. and have been acted out by our nation's leaders...

THEY ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1 The Fallen Bricks

There has been no event that has touched the United States and the world more indomitably than the attacks of September 11th, 2001. As the images of the smoke, dust and death gorged the airwaves, the descriptions of devastation penetrated every media source. Fire, smoke, dust, ashes. The bricks of Ground Zero in Manhattan were reduced to ash, with little more than dust and metal to recover.

2. We Will Build

In A Joint Response of the Nation on the Senate floor in Washington, D.C., representing the Congress and the nation and by authority as Majority Leader, Senator Tom Daschle addressed the world. Recorded in the Federal Register, are the words of Senator Daschle for the Joint Resolution of Condemnation for the attacks the morning of September 12th, 2001. Listen to some of his words:

“Mr. President...there is only the smallest measure of inspiration that can be taken from this devastation. But there is a passage in the Bible, from Isaiah, that I think speaks to all of us at times such as this: ‘The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with dressed stone; the fig trees have been felled, but we will replace them with cedars.’ That is what we will do. We will rebuild and we will recover.”

HE CHOSE GOD’S WORDS OF JUDGEMENT AS THE U.S. GOVERNMENT’S WORDS TO ITS OWN PEOPLE!

3. Bigger and Better

And then there is the arrogance of defiance. On the day of the 911 tragedy, Rudy Giuliani, the Mayor of New York City, punctuated the resolve of the city. HE SAID -

“We will rebuild: We’re going to come out of this stronger than before, politically stronger, economically stronger. The skyline will be made whole again.

4. The Hewn Stone

“We will rebuild with HEWN Stone” in other words - not with brick but with Granite - quarried from the Earth

The first stone to be used in the construction of the 1,176 ft. Freedom Tower was hewn from New York granite and lowered by crane in a ceremony on July 4, 2004. Governor George Pataki of New York presided:

“Today is indeed, a momentous day. Today we take 20 tons of Adirondack granite - the bedrock of our State - and place it as the foundation, the bedrock of a new symbol of American strength and confidence. Today, we lay the cornerstone for a new symbol of this city and this country and of our resolve in the face of terror. Today we build the Freedom Tower.”

5. And Then There is a Spirit of Defiance

Repeatedly Scripture records defiance as the highest insult against the Most High God. Senator John Kerry in his statement before the United States Senate on September 12, 2001 remarked: “...And I believe one of the first things we should commit to - with federal help that underscores our nation’s purpose – is to rebuild the towers of the World Trade Center and show the world we are not afraid - we are defiant.” On the day the cornerstone was laid, then New York Governor, George Pataki again insisted:

“Today, we, the heirs of that revolutionary spirit of defiance, lay this cornerstone.”

6. The Sycamore, The Buttonwood

“The Sycamore is cut down....” The Bible records the sycamore tree as being a sign of judgment. It even says that in Egypt the sycamore tree was struck down as a sign of judgment. On September 11th, a freak event happened in the devastation: a steel beam from the Tower was hurled from the sky.

As the Tower fell, it [the beam] went through the air and struck down an object: it was a tree.

The next day [when] the people returned to Ground Zero, they found a tree lying on the ground, pierced by the beam from the fallen Tower.

There, at Ground Zero was a sycamore tree – struck down.

And strangely, eerily, the people made a display of it, not realizing what it was a Biblical sign of judgment.

A sculptor was commissioned to make a cast of it. He poured metal into the cast: he cast it into bronze, the Biblical metal of judgment...an image of the fallen sycamore to be displayed on Wall Street.

7. The Cedar, The Arez

But there is another sign of God's impending judgment...the cedar tree or the Arez tree.

"the sycamores are fallen but we will put cedars in their place..."

Two years after September 11th, a strange site was seen on Ground Zero. A crane was lowering an object...the object was being lowered into a place where there had been a hole in the ground. The object was being laid into the place where the fallen sycamore tree had been struck down. It would have been natural to replace the sycamore tree with a sycamore tree, but the object lowered into the hole was an Arez tree, a conifer tree, the same as the cedar of Lebanon.

8. Three Years to the Day

After the events of September 11th, the Democratic candidate for Vice President was John Edwards. He was speaking in Washington D.C. at a gathering. It was September 11th, 2004 - the third anniversary of the devastation. And since it was a prayer breakfast he chose a Scripture which he linked to the events of September 11th. These are HIS words on September 11th, 2004.

Listen:

"Today, on this day of remembrance and mourning, we have the Lord's Word:
'The bricks have fallen, but we will build - with dressed stones: The sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place....' Each time that bell tolls it calls us to a greater purpose. To never forget: it calls us to always remember that when we walk together this day that the cedars will rise and the stones will go up."

DID HE KNOW – THOSE WERE THE LORD'S WORDS OF JUDGMENT TO A NATION THAT IS ON THE BRINK OF COLLAPSE BY THE LORD'S OWN

HAND?

One Final Astounding Note

On April 30th, 1789 - on that day, the government of the United States of America - the House, the Senate and the President - all gathered in the nation's first Capital together, it was the Inauguration of George Washington. It was the nation's Dedication Day. After the address, Washington, and all the other officials, the Senators, the House of Representatives, the Vice President, all left the place of Inauguration, travelled on foot to a small church, a chapel.

They went inside for two hours and they prayed, they committed, they consecrated this nation into God's hands. The entire government was kneeling before God. Where was America's ground of consecration? Where was America dedicated to God? The first Inauguration did not take place in Washington D.C. [Not] Washington at all - or Philadelphia. The first Capital of the United States was New York City...declare on September 13, 1788 by the U.S. Constitutional Convention. In 1790 the Capitol was moved to Philadelphia. It was in New York City where America began as a nation. It was there where the nation was started – it was there] that the warning of the judgment of God was given.

America, on the day of its birth as a nation, was dedicated to God at the corner of a plot of land now known by a more ominous name... "Ground Zero." Ground Zero is the 'mystery place' of American history. It was right there at the corner of Ground Zero that our nation's first government prayed and it was there where God spoke again...

What happens

next and probably soon - will depend upon whether America is willing to repent and turn back to God.

The Blood Moon Prophecy is a theory studied and taught by some Christian ministers, such as John Hagee and Mark Biltz, which states that an ongoing tetrad (a series of four consecutive lunar eclipses—coinciding on Jewish Holidays—with six full moons in between, and no intervening partial lunar eclipses) which began with the April 2014 lunar eclipse is a sign of the end times as described in the Bible in Acts 2:20 and Revelation 6:12.

Timing is everything! When major leaders of the world purposefully plan to address other leaders on specific holidays or solar events, than there is something more going on than what meets the eye! In this case, Pope Francis will not only be addressing the US Congress but also will be addressing the United Nations during such an event. Two globally minded agendas are being brought forth and it's all happening the week of the final Blood MoonTetrad.

On September 24th Pope Francis is scheduled to address the U.S. Congress in order to, "bring hope in a time of upheaval. On September 25th he is scheduled to address the United Nations to aid in launching plans for managing the globe under Sustainable Development (Agenda 21). (Now AGENDA 2030).

"Religious institutions can and should take the lead in bringing about that change [Sustainable Development, Agenda 21] in attitude towards Creation."

Why is 2015 the key pivotal date?

This is amazing and so important that you understand this to see why 2015 is so unique among all the future dates.

Tetrad is a term NASA (National Aeronautics and Space Administration) came up with to describe 4 back-to-back red lunar eclipses: 4 blood moons back-to-back. A Tetrad happens randomly and some can be separated by 10 or 20 years and others separated by hundreds of years. What is so unique of the 9 in the chart below is that they all fall on Jewish Feast holidays. So these Tetrads are very significant to us and especially Israel.

As you can see in the chart below, there was a Tetrad at the time of Jesus' crucifixion, just after Israel became a state in 1948 and then again just after the Jews captured Jerusalem in 1967. (Actually the Tetrad at the time of Christ's crucifixion put the crucifixion right in the middle of the 4 blood moons that happened in 32-33 AD.) After the 2014-2015 Tetrad, there is not another Tetrad falling on the Jewish holidays in the next 200 years.

I checked on the NASA website out to 2300 and found none.

Others have done this and say there is not another Jewish Feast holiday Tetrad for another 600 years.
 Mathew 24:32-34: Now learn the parable from the fig tree; when its branch has already become tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near; so you too, when you see all these things, recognize that He is near, right at the door. "Truly", I say to you, "this generation will not pass away until all these things take place."

If you add 100 years as a Bible generation that saw the fig tree, symbolic of Israel, born as a state in 1948, you get 2048. Since there are no more Tetrads falling on Jewish holidays after 2014-2015 then we can't go beyond September 2018 without a nuclear war, or the Jewish nation completing the Third Temple and dedicating it to God on the Feast of Trumpets in September.

Do you understand that you must be saved and be born again in the next few years or you will endure much suffering and very likely the worst thing possible and that is going into Hell for eternity .

Discernment is necessary as the rapture is a mystery, and God told John (Revelations) and Daniel (70th week) to seal up some of His words of Prophecy for the end times. As we are now at that juncture in God's Plan, many mysteries are beginning to unfold, and many are speculating as further revelations are unfolding. This is the most exciting time in history to be alive and witness events that confirm prophecy and gradually unfold the few remaining mysteries of God.

I include this video to give some clues of possibilities only, which your own research can further elucidate and verify. Not all interpretations included here are necessarily in agreement with some other views, and caution is called for in too hastily embracing interpretations and timing that God has not fully revealed as yet.

⁵⁰ Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

⁵¹ Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, ⁵² In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

⁵³ For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

⁵⁴ So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

⁵⁵ O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

Corinthians 15 : 50-54

"The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever." (Isaiah 40:8)

The evidence that the Bible is the Word of God is overwhelming to people of faith. We know that it is God's Word first and foremost because of the transforming effect it has had upon our lives. We know first hand the truth of the statement that "the Word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12).

Bible Evidences

There are many other reasons we know the Bible is God's Word. For example, there is the amazing fact of its internal harmony. The Bible is not one book. It is 66 different manuscripts written by 44 different people over a period of 1600 years. Yet, it harmonizes as if it were written by one person — which, of course, it was; for the overriding author who worked through human instruments was the Holy Spirit: "All Scripture is inspired by God..." (2 Timothy 3:16).

Further evidence of the Bible's supernatural origin is to be found in the unique character of its biographies. The great men of God are revealed with unusual candour, warts and all. The histories are written in a blunt, revealing and unbiased way that is not characteristic of human writing. Just flip through the Old Testament histories and look at the judgments that are rendered regarding each king, and you will see what I am talking about.

Of course, one of the most convincing evidences of the Bible's supernatural origin is the fact that it contains prophecies which have been fulfilled in history. The Bible is the only book in the world that serves as the basis of a religion that contains prophecies regarding the future. There are no prophecies in the Koran or in the Hindu Vedas or in the sayings of Confucius or Buddha.

Two other factors that establish the Bible as the Word of God are its unsurpassed wisdom and its advanced medical and scientific knowledge. The Bible's moral and ethical content could not have originated from fallen human nature. Its precepts for daily living are wise beyond human wisdom. And long before science made the discoveries, the Bible contained the fundamental principles of hygiene (Leviticus 13-15) and revealed such things as the shape of the earth (Isaiah 40:22), the existence of ocean currents (psalm 8:8), the hydrological cycle of weather (Ecclesiastes 1:7, 11:3), and the second law of thermodynamics (Romans 8:20-21).

In the 19th Century a new science began to develop that would provide additional evidence of the Bible's historical accuracy — the science of Archaeology. The history of Biblical archeology is ironic for it has been dominated by sceptics who have been determined to disprove the Bible. Yet, every time they turn a spade of dirt, they find new evidence that verifies the Bible! They must be the most frustrated group of scientists on planet earth.

Some Conclusions

Part 2

I am convinced that the Code is legitimate. Because of that conclusion, I believe it is one more piece of evidence that substantiates the supernatural origin of the Bible.

I also believe it substantiates the verbal, word for word, inspiration of the Bible. Jesus Himself attested to verbal inspiration when He said, "Until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter [jot] or stroke [tittle] shall pass away from the Law..." (Matthew 5:18). Modern day scholars mock the concept of verbal inspiration. And like Hendel, they also argue that even if it were true, all we have left are corrupted manuscripts. Well, I happen to believe that the same Holy Spirit who wrote the Bible is fully capable of preserving it from human corruption.

Despite my conclusion that the Code is legitimate, I want to speak a word of caution regarding it. I believe the Code poses a danger — the danger of Kabalism. This is the ancient Jewish mystical movement that has always argued that the true message of the Bible is hidden. They usually find its "true" message by spiritualizing the Scriptures to mean whatever they want them to mean.

The Code could easily be used for this purpose, and in the process it could produce some very weird messages. The reason this can so easily happen is because there are no vowels in the text of the Hebrew Scriptures. Thus, a series of five consonants could stand for as many as twenty or more words, depending on the vowels supplied by the reader. It is the context that determines the meaning of the word. And that is exactly the problem with the Code that makes it easily subject to abuse — namely, there is no context when using the Code.

Predicting the Future

I think it is interesting that the major future prophecy that Drosnin claims to have found with the Code is the prediction that there will be a World War III fought with nuclear weapons. He claims this information is encoded in the "Shema" in Deuteronomy 6:4-5.

Well, that is not new information. The book of Revelation makes it very clear that there is going to be a future world war of unparalleled proportions in which one-half of the population of the world will die. And I personally think that Revelation also makes it clear that this war will be fought with atomic weapons.

The point I want to drive home is that we do not need the Code to predict the future. The future course of world events is laid out for us in the surface message of the Bible in its end time prophecies. The Lord has told us all we need to know about the future in the surface message of the Bible.

Again, using the Code to try to predict future events will result in Satanic deceptions.

I have saved the best for last. Further evidence of the validity of the Code has been produced by a Messianic Jew named Yacov Rambsel. In his newly released book, Yeshua, he reveals what he has discovered by exploring key Old Testaments passages using the ELS approach manually. His discoveries are nothing short of sensational.

In the most famous Messianic passage in the Bible, Isaiah 53, he found the following phrase encoded in verse 10 at a skip sequence of 20 letters: "Yeshua Shmi." That phrase means "Yeshua is my name." Think of it, the very name of the Messiah is encoded in the passage that speaks of His sacrifice for the sins of Mankind!

In like manner, Rambsel found the name of the Messiah in Daniel's famous prophecy of the seventy weeks of years (Daniel 9:24-27). Encoded in verse 26, counting every 26th letter, is the name "Yeshua."

In Leviticus 21:10-12 there is a passage regarding the rules of the priesthood and the sacrifices offered for the sins of the people. Yacov discovered that counting every third letter this passage spells out the phrase, "Hain dam Yeshua," which means "Behold! The blood of Yeshua."

Drosnin says he considers the Code to be a "time-lock" that has been waiting the advent of the computer age. I think he is probably right in that conclusion.

But I think the timing of the Code's revelation is significant in another respect. I see it as just one more sign of the soon return of the Lord. As that day approaches, God the Father is providing us with fresh evidence that the Bible is what it claims to be the Word of the one and only true God. The new revised Egyptian chronology which I discussed in our May issue provides fresh evidence that the Bible is trustworthy in its historical records. The Bible Code provides new evidence that it had a supernatural origin.

I believe the Lord is providing us with this fresh evidence to substantiate the Bible because His Son is about to return, and the Father does not wish that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

I praise God for His mercy.

OUR WATCHMAN ON THE WALL ?

Song of Solomon 2:9 | My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice.
He is in Plain Site but they pray and don't see his Face, they wail but do not hear His Counsel.

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.
